Dulles Rules Out New Talks With Russians

Secretary Elated At Agreement On West Germany

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles turned today to the problem of Communist threats to free Asia after firmly ruling out new talks now with Russia about West Germany's future.

Dulles, obviously elated at West Germany's emergence as a full Atlantic Pact partner, arranged to join President Eisenhower and the rest of the National Security Council in a special meeting at the White House.

Although the subject matter was secret, informants said it was a "good bet" Communist threats against Southern Indochina and Formosa would be reviewed along with the situation in other Asiatic trouble spots.

With the nation looking and listening in, Dulles told Eisenhower and his Cabinet last night that Russia's drive to divide Western Europe's anti-Communist nations would fail. At the same time, he indicated swift American-British-French rejection of Russia's formal bid for a new round of conferences aimed at uniting Germany and arranging nationwide elections on Soviet terms.

"When we have created, as I hope we will, a position of solidarity and strength for Western Europe," the secretary of state said, "then there may be a new basis for discussion which doesn't exist at the present time."

Dulles' report will go down in history as the first broadcast and televised Cabinet meeting. Eisenhower decided to allow this, the White House said, because of the importance of last week's conference which charted West Germany's military comeback.

Dulles' words about the need for backing up Allied strength in Western Europe before new talks with Russia made it clear the United States, for one, is not impressed by Russia's newest argument—that any United Nations move to arrange step-by-step disarmament would fail as long as the West German military agreements stand.

Voight Orders Full Inquiry in Game Aides Case

MADISON (AP)—Acting Director L. P. Voigt of the conservation department said today he had ordered to full investigation into the intra-departmental situation that led to the arrest of four Department employees at Horicon for violation of Commission orders.

Voigt said he had dispatched a request to Dodge County Dist. Attorney John Kaiser for the prosecutor's records in the cases, and also for certified records of Monday's jury decision convicting two of the men—game aides Wesley Goetz and George Amelung—of illegally possessing pheasants.

The two men will be suspended as soon as the records are in his hands, Voigt said, and will remain suspended until his inquiry is completed.

He had announced previously that the department would move in to review its divisional situation as soon as regular authorities completed action on the cases.

Two higher ranking game division men—assistant waterfowl chief Richard Hunt and assistant Horicon manager Keith White—also were arrested early this year by Ken Beghin, Horicon warden. Charges against them were dismissed in Justice George Nelson's court at Watertown last July.

Cloudbursts in Salerno Spread Death, Damage

Mud Chokes Streets Of City, All Traffic Halted

By ANDREW NAHAS
SALERNO, Italy (AP)—Raging rain storms and roaring landslides ravaged the fabled Salerno-Amalfi coastline today, killing more than 150 Italians and leaving scores missing or buried beneath crumbled homes in a dozen cities and towns.

Hour by hour delayed reports painted an ever blacker picture. Officials believe it may be the worst cloudburst disaster in Italian history.

Here in Salerno—a city of 70,000 barely recovered from the savage wounds it suffered during the bitter battle when Allied troops stormed the Italian mainland in World War II—at least 62 bodies had been found in the mud-choked streets. Suburban Canolani was almost destroyed.

First unofficial reports from the impoverished little hamlet of Alessia said there were 60 victims there. One building where seven families lived caved in, killing at least 30.

No Foreign Casualties
On a smaller scale, there were similar reports from all along the beautiful 10-mile stretch of coastline which each year is a summertime playground for thousands of American and European tourists.

No foreign casualties have been reported so far. Almost all the tourists have gone home by this time of year.

Maiori reported 15 dead; Vietri, 30; Minori, 2. The total for entire Salerno province alone was set by the national police at 125. Scores of people were killed and the condition of many was critical.

Hundreds of the simple stone houses typical of this picturesque area have tumbled down.

Railroad lines throughout the area are interrupted. Several bridges plunged into the sea.

In Rome, the Cabinet called an emergency session for tomorrow to consider relief measures.

As dusk closed down in the area, separated families in near panic searched for loved ones.

The Italian army rushed in troops as leaden skies still poured rain down on the ravaged villages and cities. Landslides compounded the terror.

Officials said it is impossible yet to estimate the total death toll. Many persons may still be buried beneath the wreckage of collapsed homes.

In the Salerno area, 53 bodies have been counted. Another 39 persons are hospitalized in serious condition. Up to 100 are missing but most of these are believed safe.

15 Bodies Recovered
On the Amalfi coast, 15 bodies have been recovered at Maiori and 3 at Minori. Many were reported buried under debris at Maiori and Cava del Tirreno.

Reports from Nocera Inferiore said there were 20 victims in the hamlets of Zepe, Pacara and Novella.

Hardest hit was Salerno, known to tens of thousands of former American soldiers because it was here the Allies stormed the Italian mainland in a bloody World War II battle.

In Rome, the Ministry of Interior said first reports indicate the toll may be the highest of any Italian floods in recent history.

Also hard hit were the hamlets of Marina di Vietri and Molina, where first reports to police said as many as 50 persons may have been buried as buildings crumbled.

Communications with the stricken area were disrupted and officials said it was impossible to get an accurate estimate of casualties.

Except for an emergency line with police headquarters here, there were no communications with Cava del Tirreno, a city of some 35,000.

Heavy rains pounded Cava del Tirreno throughout the night and all traffic with the area was disrupted. The town was reported to be without electricity.

Police said communications also were cut with Amalfi and Salerno. Reports said a railroad bridge had collapsed at Ponte del Rodolo near Cava del Tirreno.

National police at Nocera, about five miles from Cava del Tirreno, reported there were 20 dead in that area. It was not determined immediately whether these were in addition to the 50 dead reported by Naples police, or included in that total.

An Interior Ministry spokesman in Rome said about 500 persons were homeless in the stricken area.

Five Inches of Snow on Ground At Rapid City

There was a little touch of winter in northwest sections today but Indian summer weather continued in most other parts of the country. A rather broad area of snow extended from Wyoming and southern Montana eastward into parts of the Dakotas and extreme northern Nebraska. Snow on the ground measured five inches at Rapid City, S.D., Douglas, Wyo., and Broadus, Mont. Temperatures were in the 20s in the northern plains and Rockies.

East of the snow area, there was rain or drizzle from Minnesota southward through the Missouri Valley, while showers and thunderstorms were reported from the southern plains northeastward through the Ohio Valley.

British Queen Mother's Arrival Delayed by Storm

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cunard liner Queen Elizabeth, bringing Queen Mother Elizabeth of England to the United States for a visit, was scheduled to dock here at 4:45 p.m., today after being delayed 12 hours by a storm east of Newfoundland.

Winds of 64 to 72 miles per hour were reported in that area Monday, delaying several other liners. The Queen Mother and her party are among 1,923 passengers on the liner named for her.

After an official welcome aboard the ship, the Queen Mother will go by auto to Wave Hill, the Bronx mansion residence of Sir Pierson Dixon, Britain's permanent delegate to the U.N., where she will stay during her nine days in New York.

ST. PAUL (AP)—Eugene Bloomer and the Austin Liquor Store Inc. he formerly owned each were fined $500 Monday for selling liquor at wholesale without a proper license. Judge Robert C. Bell was informed that Bloomer sold the store in August. The offenses he admitted came before that.

Ike Reports Drop In Unemployment

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower passed out new pre-election ammunition to fellow Republicans last night in saying unemployment has dropped 400,000 to a new total of 2,700,000, below three million the first time this year.

The chief executive, increasingly active in the home stretch for continued GOP control of Congress, also focused nationwide attention on the administration in the foreign affairs field a few hours earlier through the first telecast and broadcast of a Cabinet meeting.

And reports persisted the President may take to the road again late this week to lend a personal hand once more in the campaign.

The White House described as "nonpolitical" both last night's TV-radio Cabinet session on the new European defense alliance against Communism and the President's major speech 3 1/2 hours later dealing in part with unemployment, a major campaign issue.

Privately, however, presidential aides were elated over Eisenhower's two nationwide appearances on radio and television in a single evening with the elections just a week off. And, also privately, they voiced hope the appearances will benefit the GOP cause at the polls Nov. 2.

Ask More Talks
There has been talk that party leaders have been getting word to the White House they would like Eisenhower to make a two-day flying trip into Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Massachusetts and Delaware for a round of speeches. A White House official said the possibility had been discussed but that Eisenhower had not been sounded out.

The President's discussion of the unemployment situation, theme of Democratic criticism of the administration in several congressional races, came in an address to members of the National Security Industrial Assn. here.

He called 1954 "our most prosperous peacetime year in history," but added that "in certain industries and localities some unemployment still exists as the aftermath of war and inflation."

Then the President announced that Secretary of Labor Mitchell, in a nationwide telecast tonight, will "give to the public all of the facts we have on this employment and unemployment situation."

Will Hit Back
That undoubtedly means the Republicans are ready to hit back again at the Democrats, who have been contending the Eisenhower administration has pursued policies which breed unemployment and has shown callousness toward the jobless.

Eisenhower's speech was mainly a rosy account of the nation's economic health, coupled with this forecast:

"Drawing on the richly varied abilities of our entire citizenry, we can foresee that in less than a decade from today's $50 billion dollars to 500 billion. This would equal an average increase of more than $3,000 for every American family of today."

He called for an end to "the rash of fears that for so long have haunted some of us—fear of war, fear of unemployment, fear of ourselves, fear of the future," and added:

"Certainly, we know now that one such fear—fear of a paralyzing depression—can be safely laid away."

Ike Considering Minnesota Trip

ST. PAUL (AP)—George Etzell, national Republican committeeman for Minnesota, was told today that the possibility of President Eisenhower's making a swing into Minnesota before Tuesday's election was "under consideration."

Etzell, who phoned the White House this morning, was told that there were no definite plans for such a trip by the President.

One proposed schedule called for visits to Louisville, Ky., Waterloo, Iowa, and Detroit, Mich., on Friday with an overnight stop in Detroit. Under this schedule the President would then visit Minneapolis, Boston and Wilmington, Del., on Saturday. Another report said Eisenhower might campaign in Ohio.

Campaign of Desperation Laid to GOP

DETROIT (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell said in a speech last night the Republicans are conducting a "campaign of desperation."

Mitchell, in Michigan to bolster the chances of Democratic candidates, accused President Eisenhower of abdication leadership "whenever the going gets tough."

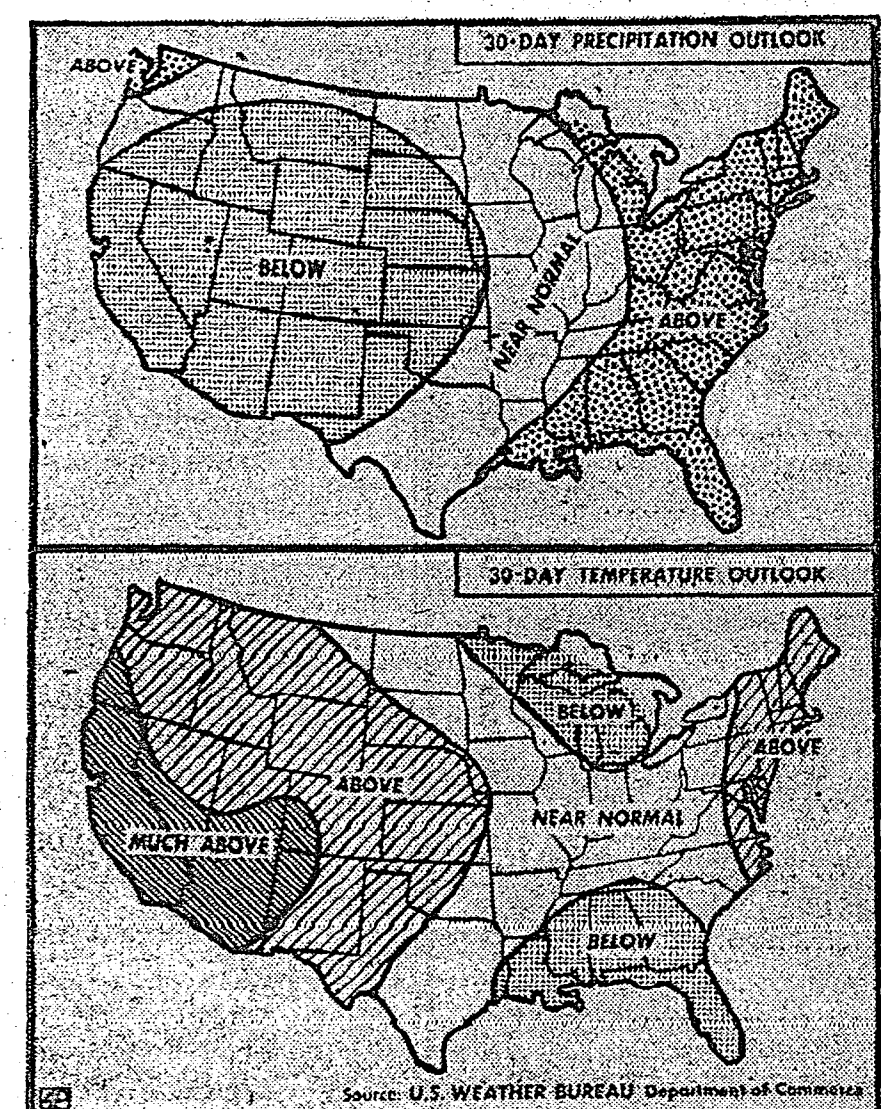

He also accused the President of threatening the American people with "a cold war" in Washington if voters elect a Democratic Congress next week.

He said, "It is certainly unworthy of the President to threaten the American people with 'cold war' if they elect a Congress of their own choosing instead of his."

Earlier, he predicted his party has a good chance for the "biggest Democratic sweep since 1936." He forecast a victory for Patrick V. McNamara, Democratic nominee for senator, and capture of at least three additional House seats in Michigan.

He said the GOP has McCarthyism "in a new edition," with Vice President Nixon as "chief author and spokesman."

Mitchell said he was referring to Nixon's views on civil service. He said the vice president has been "suggesting" that the civil service is "shot through with Communists, perverts and so on."

India Demands Halt on Making Weapons of War

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The long U.N. arms debate neared a close today with a call by India for a halt on weapons production until a worldwide disarmament pact can be reached.

India's V. K. Krishna Menon, last speaker listed in the debate, sought the floor in the 60-nation Political Committee to present his appeal for a standstill agreement.

The Indian resolution called on the U.N. Disarmament Commission to study ways of setting up an "armament truce" pending agreement on a disarmament convention. Menon previously urged a halt in the production of atomic bombs until measures could be set up to eliminate them, but nothing ever came of it.

The resolution circulated among delegates last night also called on the General Assembly to reconvene in December—instead of adjourning—so it could reconvene quickly if the Disarmament Commission issued a report requiring immediate action.

Russia's Andrei Vishinsky held the floor for two hours and 40 minutes yesterday while he blasted the London and Paris agreements on West German rearmament and challenged the Western Powers to match Soviet efforts toward disarmament.

In his longest speech on the arms question this year, Vishinsky told the Western Powers, "You can't have new pacts which make for aggression while you are supposedly seeking disarmament in the U.N."

Boyle's Column Clergymen Have Own Rendezvous

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Every occupation or hobby group in Manhattan has its favorite meeting places.

The college crowd holds reunions "under the clock" in the Biltmore Hotel lobby. Actors hang out at the Algonquin, Ralph's and Sardi's.

Outdoor checker players cluster in Washington Square, musicians, and pickpockets in Times Square, dog walkers on Park Avenue and professional huns on the Bowery.

Clergymen have a rendezvous place, too. They often meet at "Duffy's Tavern"—as many refer to it—across the street from the New York public library's famous twin lions at 41st and Fifth Avenue.

The "tavern" is the clerical department of Rogers Peet Co., a clothing firm. The department has been run for 30 years by Frank Duffy, who probably knows more clergymen than any other man in America. He travels 40,000 miles annually and outfits some 10,000 priests, ministers and rabbis.

"We've taken care of ministers from every corner of the world," said Duffy.

Duffy said clergymen were relatively easy to please because they know what they want (they don't usually bring a wife along) and their styles change slowly.

"They have a wonderful sense of humor," he said. "They enjoy a good joke, and when they meet here they rarely talk about ecclesiastical or political matters."

"The younger clergymen today are taller and more muscular than those of 30 years ago. You run into more and more 6 footers."

"Among Protestant clergymen there is a trend toward more informality. The double breasted suit has taken the place of the long coat for daily wear. The old wide-brimmed hat has given way to the homburg."

"Most clergymen today want to find a sensible compromise somewhere between the Broadway drape shape and the out-of-date 'where's-the-corpse?' look."

Duffy estimates he has outfitted more than 30,000 clergymen, has yet to meet a dishonest one. Only death or a long disease has ever kept a clergyman from meeting his bills.

Duffy treasures a note sent him by the late Rev. Ambrose Hyland, the famous chaplain who built "The Church of the Good Thief" inside the walls of Dannemora Prison.

"Will you please send me a couple of cassocks for my altar boys?" it read. "One is a 46 long and the other a 44 regular. Both are livers."

FTC Chairman Orders Probe of Business Mergers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Chairman Edward F. Howrey of the Federal Trade Commission has ordered a "speedy but thorough" probe of business mergers to determine whether competition is being lessened.

Citing a nearly fourfold increase in mergers and company sales that took place after the outbreak of war in Korea, Howrey bracketed it with the "trust-forming era of 1887-1904" and "a significant merger movement in the 1920s."

"There is no question that the present merger movement must be carefully assessed" in the light of the antitrust laws, Howrey said late yesterday in announcing the new study.

After two decades when mergers averaged 200 a year, they shot up in 1951 to 703, rose again in 1952 to 822 and fell back a little in 1953 to 793, according to a tabulation accompanying the FTC announcement.

Business consolidations in 1951, 1952 and 1953 totaled 2,318, compared with 602 for the previous three years. The all-time high recorded by FTC was 2,218 mergers or business acquisitions in the manufacturing and mining field in 1929.

In the first half of this year, FTC said, there were some 285 consolidations, possibly indicating a drop to about 600 for the current year.

Democrats Telling King-Size Whoppers, Says GOP's Hall

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall, in a "pep talk" to Connecticut Republicans last night, charged the Democrats "have chosen to gamble everything on a reckless and destructive attack of sheer misrepresentation."

The Democrats, in their campaign to win control of the 84th Congress, have told "three big lies—king-size whoppers—misrepresenting the nation's economic picture, its spectacular success in foreign relations and achieving peace, and its cleanup of the Truman mess," Hall declared.

"It's the old technique of the big lie repeated again and again," he said. "But the public is not being fooled."

State Construction For 9 Months of '54 Tops All of '53

NEW YORK (AP)—Minnesota building, with contracts awarded for future construction, for the first nine months this year topped all of 1953 with a whopping $357,915,000 total, the F. W. Dodge Corp., construction news and marketing specialists, reported today.

Residential building in the state accounted for $142,004,000, an increase of 13 per cent, non-residential was put at $215,911,000, up 22 per cent, and heavy engineering works hit $99,999,000, a gain of $58 per cent over the same nine months last year.

Awards for September totaled $43,639,000, down 19 per cent from August but 25 per cent ahead of September 1953. The breakdown showed that, of this total, $22,023,000 was for residential construction, $16,265,000 non-residential, and $5,351,000 heavy engineering.

Dismantling Started Of Historic Ettrick Wood Shop Building

ETTRICK, Wis. (Special)—The old Martin Anderson wood carving and furniture repair shop, on Mill street next to the Peterson Brothers Meat Market, has been purchased by Helmer Emilson, North Beaver Creek farmer, and is being torn down.

The historic 2-story frame building, recently owned by the Peterson Brothers, is one of Ettrick's early buildings, and since the death of Anderson in 1937, has stood empty and in bad repair.

Anderson, who died at the age of 88, was born in Norway in 1849, coming to America at the age of 17. With his father, when he came to what is now the village of Ettrick in 1865, Ole Hademark owned the 80 acres of land, including the building site. The only building here at that time was a log cabin, and most of the land was covered with underbrush. Anderson spent a part of his life in Chicago, employed in machine shops, where he was at the time of the historic burning of the city. He returned to Ettrick in 1914 to open the repair shop. His wife died in 1902.

Emilson will use the material in the old building to build a shed.

Iron ore carriers on the Great Lakes are as much as 714 feet long.

State Has 140 New Postmasters Since Ike Took Office

WASHINGTON (AP)—A count by Sen. Thye (R-Minn.) shows that 140 new postmasters have been appointed in Minnesota since the Eisenhower administration took office Jan. 20, 1953. The state had a total of 987 post offices on July 1.

Heading the changes was appointment of Leonard F. Ramberg as postmaster at Minneapolis, the largest postoffice in the state.

New postmasters in other large offices in the state include: Anoka, Walter J. Jacob; Austin, Elmer T. Regue; Grand Rapids, Harvey M. Madsen; Little Falls, Edward K. Tanner; Rochester, Glenn B. Burbach; St. Cloud, Lionel J. Spaniel; Stillwater, Milton Lindbloom; Waseca, Donald C. Brown; Wayzata, Arnold C. George.

Two other first-class post offices have new acting postmasters: Cloquet, Raymond O. Johnson, and South St. Paul, Samuel B. Ferguson.

Thye said President Eisenhower has nominated 74 postmasters now serving in first, second and third class offices in the state and that all such nominations submitted to the Senate during the 83rd Congress were confirmed.

Thye said most of the changes, according to his survey, have resulted from normal turnover—resignations, deaths and transfers.

This modern Bunyan is your Prudential Agent... all those listed below, and many more in almost every city in America.

Last month in Appleton, for example, he made certain that a widow wouldn't have to go to work and a fatherless child would have a full-time mother.

Last week in Grand Island he saw to it that a farmer's family would never have to leave its lifelong home.

Yesterday in Duluth he made sure that a young boy would one day be able to go to the medical school of his choice. And in Pontiac he saw that bills were paid when a husband and father was laid up by a serious accident.

Injuries Cited By Winonan In Court Trial

McMillen Recounts
Version of Mishap
South of Lamoille

Injuries suffered by him and his wife in an automobile accident between Dakota and Lamoille last April were described in District Court this morning by Harry L. McMillen, 1104 Gilmore Ave., one of the plaintiffs in two suits for damages totaling $50,000.

McMillen and his wife have brought the personal injury actions against James Fernette, the driver, and Carlos Meyer, the owner of a car which was involved in the collision with the McMillen car on Highway 61 April 6. Both Meyer and Fernette are from Prairie du Chien, Wis.

The trial of the two cases before a jury began Monday afternoon with Judge Karl Finkelnburg presiding.

Last Jury Case

After the 12 jurors had been selected, the remainder of the jury panel drawn for the fall term of District Court was dismissed after the court announced that the McMillen cases are the last to be tried before a jury during the current court term.

C. Stanley McMahon and Robert W. Brehmer of the firm of George, Brehmer & McMahon are representing the McMillens while Tom Skemp, La Crosse, and S. A. Sawyer of the firm of Sawyer, Sawyer & Darby are representing the defendants.

McMillen was the seventh witness to be called by McMahon and took the witness stand when the trial, was resumed this morning.

McMillen testified that on April 6 he and his wife had been in La Crosse and were returning to Winona when the accident occurred shortly after 6 p.m.

McMillen said that he was driving north on the highway when he met a car and a truck.

Immediately after passing the truck, he continued, he first noticed the southbound Fernette car rounding a slight curve.

"Over Center Line" McMillen said that when he first saw the car "it was just coming over the center line into my lane."

Explaining that the car was following the truck—previously identified as having been driven by Meyer—between 1 1/2 and 2 car lengths.

When he saw the car approaching, McMillen testified, he "started to pull to the right to try to get off the pavement, to get out of the way."

McMillen said that his car was about a foot off the pavement when it was struck by the Fernette car.

The witness said that his car rolled over and that he lost consciousness momentarily.

Tried to Move When he regained consciousness, McMillen said, he noticed his wife lying at the edge of the pavement ahead of the car and he tried to move toward her before he lost consciousness again.

Sometime later, he said, he and his wife were taken to the Winona General Hospital in an ambulance.

Since the accident, McMillen testified, he has suffered neck and back pains and he was found to have suffered a chipped bone in his thumb. He was not hospitalized after the accident.

He said that the pain in his neck has increased since the mishap.

McMillen also testified that his wife was hospitalized for nine weeks for treatment of her injuries and that she is unable to do work now that she was capable of before the accident.

Cross-Examination In cross-examination Skemp asked McMillen whether he had been suffering from arthritis since 1933 and the witness answered that he "had" arthritis since about that time but that he had not "suffered" from it.

He was asked whether he had received medical treatment for arthritis on several occasions prior to the mishap and answered that he had visited a doctor "five or six times" but added that he "didn't do it on that account."

Asked by Skemp whether he knew that his "joints were 'welling'" before the accident, McMillen replied that he did not.

"Did you not know that your wife had arthritis seriously before the accident?" Skemp inquired and McMillen replied that he "did not know for sure."

Pictures Introduced Early in the trial Monday afternoon after a Winona photographer, Merritt Kelley, had introduced a series of pictures taken at the crash scene, Fernette was called for cross-examination by McMahon.

Fernette explained that he was a part-time employe of Meyer and that on the day of the accident they had gone to Minneapolis and on the return trip stopped at Red Wing where Meyer purchased a car.

Meyer drove the truck and Fernette the car when they began the trip from Red Wing to Prairie du Chien.

Fernette said that he was following Meyer at a speed of between 40 and 45 miles an hour

Practicing For Their Walk to shake the hand of Val Bjornson, should he win the Minnesota senatorial election, are Robert Hogue, left, Cannon Falls, and John Adams, Red Wing, officers of the Goodhue County GOP. ## Teacher Speaker At 4-H Leaders Annual Banquet

Norman Indall, social science instructor at Winona Senior High School, will address 4-H leaders and members of the Association of Commerce agriculture committee at the annual recognition banquet at the YMCA at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. His topic will be "Where Is Our Youth Leadership Leading Us?"

Sponsored by the A. of C. "ag" committee, the event honors rural youth leaders. George Robertson, chairman, will be master of ceremonies; music will be provided by the high school string trio of Sharon Jackson, Solveig Lokensgard and Donald Stow.

Elroy Gaedy, Ridgeway, who recently received the American Farmer award from the Future Farmers of America, will respond to a welcome on behalf of the 4-H leaders. Local council officers and advisers will be introduced by Mrs. Joyce Randall, Lewiston, county home agent; the toastmaster will introduce committee members and special guests. Leadership recognition and awards will be made by members of the A. of C.

Subcommittees in charge of the program are C. A. Choate, Ted Maier and Harold Schultz. Every junior and senior leader in Winona County, members of the "ag" committee and their guests have been invited.

Robertson is chairman of the committee. Others in addition to those named are C. P. Crawford, William Gurney, Leo La France, J. B. Leveille, Fred Leighton, Kenneth McQueen, E. W. Miller, Lester Peterson and Clarence Totman.

Asked by McMahon whether he had been told by Sheriff George Fort after the accident that all of the debris from the two cars was in the McMillen lane, Fernette replied, "He said the dirt was on my side where it was."

In reply to subsequent questions by McMahon, Fernette said that he could not remember whether he had talked to Sheriff Fort or Deputy Helmer Weinmann as to what lane of traffic he was in at the time of the crash.

"Do you remember the sheriff asking you at the scene of the accident or at any other place why you were on the right side of the road?" McMahon inquired and Fernette replied, "He did not."

McMahon then asked whether he (McMahon) had inquired of Fernette during the taking of a deposition here in September regarding this matter and that Fernette had replied, "He (the sheriff) kept asking me why I was on the wrong side of the road and I kept saying that I wasn't."

Fernette said that he remembered being asked the question for the deposition.

Meyer Testifies Meyer's testimony was somewhat similar to Fernette's and included references to the trip to Minneapolis and Red Wing where he purchased the car Fernette was driving.

The trucker said that he knew nothing about the accident until Fernette passed him a short distance from where the accident occurred and that at that time he saw loose chromium flapping on the car and concluded that there had been an accident.

Meyer said that when he reached the accident scene Mrs. McMillen was lying, partially on the pavement and partially on the shoulder of the highway, approximately 25 feet north of where the McMillen car was upended on the shoulder. Meyer said that McMillen was near the car when he arrived.

Another witness Monday afternoon was McMillen's son, Lowell, Minneapolis, who exhibited pictures he had taken at the site of the accident four or five days after the crash and also two photographs of the McMillen car taken at the same time.

Sheriff Fort and Weinmann were the other witnesses called by McMahon before adjournment at 5 p.m.

The sheriff explained that he received a call that there was an accident near Lamoille at 6:40 p.m. and that he and Weinmann went to investigate.

The sheriff described the position of the two vehicles when he arrived and told of asking Fernette how the accident occurred.

He quoted Fernette as saying that he turned into the other lane of traffic.

"Isn't it a fact that Fernette denied that he had been in the wrong lane?" Skemp asked in cross-examination. Sheriff Fort said that that was not true.

Weinmann also described the accident scene and reviewed measurements he had taken on the highway during the investigation.

The deputy was on the witness stand when court was adjourned. Jurors selected to hear the case are Mrs. Josephine Breza, 50 Laird St.; Richard Buege, 217 Franklin St.; Mrs. Regina Cardelli, Minnesota City; Theodore Dorn, Lewiston; Mrs. Burt Dyer, St. Charles; Mrs. Rudy Edell, 455 E. Broadway; Paul Matzke, Aurora.

Mrs. John Stock, St. Charles; Frank Groth, Houston; Mrs. Harry Harris, 854 E. Sanborn St.; Alex Breska, 527 E. 5th St.; and Mrs. Albert Sobek, Winona Rt. 2.

2 Hospitalized By Collision Near Lewiston

Car-Truck Crash
On Township Road
Injures 3rd Man

LEWISTON, Minn. (Special)—Two men were hospitalized this morning for injuries suffered in a car-truck collision on a township road one mile south of here.

Receiving treatment at the Winona General Hospital for injuries suffered in the crash are Herman Neuman, 16, 422 1/2 Center St., Winona, the driver of the car, and a passenger in the automobile, Leon Peterson, 36, Lewiston.

Neuman is believed to have suffered a fractured collarbone and has multiple facial cuts and bruises. Peterson suffered a possible shoulder fracture and is being examined for other injuries.

Other Driver Examined The driver of the gravel truck, Dean Sutfins, 48, Lamoille, apparently suffered no serious injuries but was being examined by a doctor this morning.

Sheriff George Fort said that the accident occurred at 8:50 a.m. at Morgang's corner, about 200 feet south of State Aid Road 2 near Lewiston.

Sutfins was driving his truck north and the car was traveling east when the two vehicles collided at the intersection.

Sheriff Fort said that each driver told him that he did not see the other vehicle before the collision occurred.

After the crash the gravel truck rolled over once on the highway—with the load of crushed rock spilling out on the road—and finally came to a stop in a grassy area at the northeast corner of the junction.

Car Skids on Road The car remained upright but skidded across the road and stopped a short distance from the truck.

Measurements made by the sheriff and Deputy Sheriff Helmer Weinmann showed that the truck traveled a distance of 51 feet after the crash and the car went 49 feet.

Another motorist who arrived at the scene a short time after the accident took Neuman and Peterson to a Lewiston physician and the injured were later taken to the hospital in Winona.

Veterans Service Center Activities Listed at Meeting

Services rendered to veterans were reported at the annual meeting of the Winona County Veterans Service Center Committee Monday evening at the Winona County Courthouse.

The report of Service Officer Philip Kaczorowski revealed a total of 3,056 counseling interviews in the office during the 12 months ending last June. Letters written totaled 2,055 and received, 2,398. Forms completed numbered 2,284.

Services of the center, located on the second floor of the courthouse, resulted in individual veterans, dependents and survivors receiving a total of $84,985, representing such monetary benefits as nonservice-connected pension, service-connected compensation, insurance and burial allowance.

During the annual meeting operations of the office were discussed. Among the services asked by some veterans at present is a farm training program, Kaczorowski reported. He said that about a dozen veterans have indicated an interest in a class. There is no such class in the county at present.

Re-elected directors for 3-year terms were John Relland of St. Charles, Harold Libera and Adolph Bremer. Holdover directors are Francis Lipinski, Gordon R. Clossway, John W. Dugan, C. Lewis Wood, Herman Krenzke of Lewiston and James D. Cole.

At the annual meeting of the board of directors which followed Wood was named chairman succeeding Bremer. Bremer was elected vice chairman succeeding Wood and Kaczorowski was re-named secretary-treasurer.

Dugan was chairman of the nominating committee with Lipinski and Cole as members.

The center is financed jointly by the City Council and the Winona County Board of Commissioners.

Mrs. Quain Pleads Guilty to Charge

LA CROSSE, Wis. — Mrs. Corinne Michalke Quain, 21, Monday entered a plea of guilty in Circuit Court here on a charge of assault with intent to murder in connection with a stabbing in a La Crosse apartment Wednesday night.

Judge Lincoln Neprud postponed sentencing until the victim of the attack, Mrs. Elvera Dinger, 21, La Crosse, is out of danger. The case was continued until Nov. 12, Mrs. Quain said she stabbed Mrs. Dinger after being accused of stealing clothing.

A native of La Crosse, Mrs. Quain had been visiting a relative in Winona recently.

District Attorney John Bosshard said Mrs. Dinger's physician had informed him that the danger point will be passed in 7 to 10 days and that although she has shown steady improvement, there is still the possibility of internal hemorrhage.

Mrs. Quain Saturday entered a guilty plea in La Crosse County Court and has since been held under $5,000 bond. The bond was continued.

Maximum sentence for the offense is 1 to 30 years, Bosshard said.

Blood Can't Be Manufactured

Blood can't be manufactured by a machine. Humans can manufacture blood, and they do. However, sometimes they need more than they can manufacture.

That's the time when they need your blood.

It's amazing but this happens about 1,200 times a year to Winona County residents — at a pint a time.

The American Red Cross is a collection agency to meet this need.

Its collection unit will be in Winona next Monday through Thursday.

A total of 1,000 pledges are needed for this visit.

If you are within the age group 18-59 and physically able, will you be one of the 1,000?

Remember, there's no machine that can manufacture blood, and you or a member of your family might be among those who will need blood next.

Park Directors To Meet With City Council

Levee Parking Lot,
Gabrych Improvement,
Budget to Be Aired

Members of the Park-Recreation Board will meet with the City Council at 8 p.m. Monday to discuss several matters brought to the board's attention through letters from the Council which were read at the monthly meeting Monday afternoon.

They'll attempt to work out an agreement on the location of a parking lot in Levee Park. At the last meeting the board discovered that the aldermen are considering a different site than that favored by the board.

The Council is interested in developing a 2-block area west of Center street on the south side of the park, but the board is agreed that the area should be east of Center street.

Reasons behind this stand are that it appears to be more advisable from park purposes in that only five trees would have to be removed and that establishment of a lot between Center and Walnut streets would detract less from the park area than a lot extending from Center to Johnson streets.

The commissioners also observed that a 2-hour metered area is in operation on Main street, near the park and that another west-location parking lot soon will be open at the Winona County Courthouse.

President C. W. Siebrecht, who served on a committee studying the parking lot, noted that an Association of Commerce mail poll showed that opinion concerning the location of the Levee Park lot was evenly divided. While going on record as favoring the Center and east location, the commissioners agreed that extension to the west would be possible if the demand for the facilities exists.

Gabrych Park Also up for discussion Monday will be two matters pertaining to Gabrych Park, which the P-R department leases from the Athletic Board.

A week ago, a delegation of the Winona Baseball Association met with the Council to ask continuation of the $50 per game rental fee and consideration of a proposal to sod the infield. Cost of the latter, the WBA said, would be in the neighborhood of $1,000.

Commissioners Monday expressed concern that the sodding could possibly curtail to some extent the summer activities program carried on under P-R supervision.

The board also will discuss its program for areas along Lake Winona with the aldermen Monday. The Council informed the board it desires no extension of Lake Park during the next fiscal year. It is a letter telling the board to shift $24,000 from the $44,000 surplus fund into active use during the year beginning next April and informing the board of an additional $10,000 cut in the proposed $101,000 budget.

Board members agreed, however, that the work involved will be maintenance rather than extension, explaining that neglect of areas along the lake that have been used for public gardens, would only increase the cost later.

Although no definite action was taken, the board reviewed a plan that could compensate for the $10,000 cut through the elimination of activities that had been planned and included in the budget.

Among them was construction of new sidewalks at one of the city block park areas maintained by the park. Cost of this had been set at about $2,500. Also suggested was the $1,000 set aside for maintenance of the Westfield Golf Course and the money spent this year for a tractor that was not included in the present year's budget.

The board also decided against acting on bids submitted on a turf maintenance tractor and 3-gang mower attachment. The bids were tabled during the September meeting and the board Monday decided to reconsider the purchase at a later date.

Bills totaling $682.25 were approved.

Forecasters Kept Busy On Election

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (U)—The forecasting game nears its seasonal climax. Every week sports oracles tell you how next Saturday's football will turn out, and every Monday they explain how the upsets that crossed them up were really as unusual as the weather you know where.

And this week every political pundit is proclaiming—just how next Tuesday's election will go in this, that and the other place, and if you read it all you'll be too tired to go to the polls.

But warming up in front of the stands is still another team of forecasters—the nation's economists, in industry or government, in colleges or just out on their own as consultants.

Already they are issuing guesses as to what will happen to business if the Republicans retain Congress and what will happen if the Democrats capture it. (If the Republicans win, they say, business will be encouraged through knowing it still has a friend in court. If the Democrats win, they say, business will be comforted by the thought that the tendency might be toward inflation—and a mild dose always makes business look better, whether it is or not.)

Soon the economists will be swarming all over the printed page telling you how business will be in the coming year.

Most of them, encouraged by the signs of a pickup in the making this fall, are guessing that 1955's business activity should exceed 1954's by anywhere from 5 to 10 per cent.

Since, so far this year, industrial output has trailed 1953's record by about that same rate, the predictions seem to promise that 1955 will be nearly as good as 1953.

For it was really Christmas for the 7-year-old leukemia victim who doctors say has only a few days to live.

It Happened Last Night Our Youth, the Thing We Hate to Lose Most

Wreckage of Missing U.S. Plane Sighted

NICE France (U)—Wreckage believed to be that of a missing U.S. Air Force C47 was sighted today in the French Alps about 40 miles from the Mediterranean coast. A rescue plane left for the area to drop parachutists.

The C47, missing since Sunday, carried 21 American airmen.

A search plane reported sighting the wreckage in the 9,000-foot, snow clad mountains in the area where a French railway employee reported seeing a big flash of light Sunday afternoon.

Searchers were unable to confirm a report by a workman near Bastia, Corsica, that he saw a second twin-engine plane crash into the rough sea yesterday afternoon. Neither planes nor ships sent to investigate the report found any trace of wreckage.

U.S. Hopes to Quit Food Business, Farm Official Says

WASHINGTON (U)—A top farm official said Monday the Eisenhower Administration hopes to "get the government out of the food business, or at least substantially to reduce governmental activities in that area."

Earl L. Butz, assistant secretary of agriculture, outlined this goal in a speech prepared for a conference of farm extension service leaders from all 48 states.

The conference aims at providing an outlook on economic and agricultural conditions during the next year and will continue for five days. Speeches are scheduled by a number of administration and agriculture officials.

Butz said the average farm now is worth about $25,000 and that a good commercial corn belt farm in Indiana represents an investment of $85,500.

He said this means it costs about $50,000 to create one farm job while American industry invests only $12,000 to $15,000 to create one industrial job.

As a result, he said, the manager of a successful commercial farm "must make management decisions every week covering a much wider field than most the manager of a typical retail store in your county seat town."

GEORGE DALEY
STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Read what Mrs. Thomas T. Halo, Legislative Chairman of the Minnesota Society for the Mentally Retarded has to say in a letter written to Rep. Daley, May 25, 1953.

"The Legislative session is over. We now want to thank you for your sincere interest and concern in the needs of the mentally retarded. This was evident in the study and report of the Interim Committee on Mental Health, in your willingness to listen to the need for institutional space, both, from that committee and from our members. And it was climaxed by your final vote on provision for that space."

Mario Reports, Met Denies $100,000 Offer

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (U)—How would you like to earn $100,000 on an afternoon's work?

Impossible, you say? Yet Mario Lanza claims he was offered such a deal.

"When I was in Palm Springs last year," said the bulky tenor, "my agent came to me with an offer from the Metropolitan Opera House. Rudolf Bing offered me $100,000 to sing one opera on one of their shows to be sent to various theaters throughout the country via theater television."

(In New York, Bing denied making the offer and added: "Who is he? Oh, that tenor. I heard a few of his records the other day. I hardly know the man and I'm not altogether sure I would want to. I do know that none of our singers would sing for such chickenfeed as $100,000.")

(Actually, Metropolitan's reported top for a single performance is about $1,500, averaging perhaps less than $1,000.)

Lanza said he turned down the offer. He said he'll accept when the money is $150,000. But he added:

"Money, it is nothing. Absolutely nothing to me. But unfortunately, money is the standard by which you are judged in this business."

Concern over money is one of the principal causes of Lanza's two year retirement after being on top of the show business world. He had been earning a million a year, yet the United States slapped a lien on his earnings for back income taxes. The blow added to his emotional upset.

"The government claimed I owed a quarter of a million dollars," he reported. "In the past year, I have paid them over a quarter-million, but I am still behind, according to them. I still must pay income tax on the money I earned to pay them."

His entire $40,000 check for his TV debut—the celebrated "record session"—went to Uncle Sam.

"But I am very fortunate," Lanza said. "In six or eight months of work, I can wipe out everything I owe."

New Hearing Set For Dog's Protector

MONROE, La. (U)—A new hearing will be held for Joe Cooper, the 11-year-old boy who liberated his dog at gunpoint after his school principal locked the animal in a closet.

Murphy Blackwell, the boy's attorney, said Dist. Judge Howell Heard notified him a hearing had been tentatively set for Friday.

Joey has been in Louisiana Training Institute for the past three weeks. A storm of protest followed his commitment.

Lawyers Endorse Bernhard LeVander

MINNEAPOLIS—Nine hundred nineteen lawyers from all parts of the state have endorsed Bernhard LeVander for attorney general, the top legal job of Minnesota.

No candidate for state office has ever had such uniform and widespread support from the lawyers of Minnesota, according to S. E. Wennerberg, Center City, chairman of the LeVander for Attorney General Lawyers Volunteer Committee.

"No finer recommendation could be given a fellow lawyer. The attorney general is the one constitutional officer of our state requiring professional and technical ability. Therefore, the recommendations of those in the same profession are highly significant," Wennerberg pointed out.

"His fellow lawyers have recognized in LeVander those qualities of fairness, integrity, impartiality and judicial temperament which will make LeVander a worthy and capable successor to J. A. A. Burnquist as our attorney general."

THE WORLD TODAY

Nation Sits In On U.S. Cabinet Session

By ED CREAGH
(For James Marlow)
WASHINGTON (U)—Nothing quite like this has been seen before in the often picturesque history of this republic.

You flipped a switch, you waited for your television screen to come alive, then there you were in the middle of a meeting between the President of the United States and his Cabinet.

The time was 7 p.m. yesterday. The place was the Cabinet Room of the White House, its green walls a vague gray on the TV screen.

The star—though he drew President Eisenhower into the spotlight with him—was Secretary of State Dulles.

First you saw the room itself, with its long coffin-shaped table. Next the Cabinet members filed in—all men except Secretary of Welfare Oveta Culp Hobby.

Finally, through the same door in the rear, came Dulles—back from Paris only a few hours—and the President. Eisenhower sat down, smiled, folded his hands.

"Mrs. Hobby and gentlemen..." he began, and the first Cabinet meeting ever to go on the air, or to be reported by newsmen on the spot, was under way.

What were the reporters and the radio microphones and the TV cameras doing there? When a request was made to open up this meeting, the President said, he decided—"for this one time"—to let all the American people hear a report of vital importance to them.

Then Dulles, his tie a little askew, his fingers toying with a pencil that got lead all over them, gave his report: A story of a new spirit of Western unity flowering on the grave of the European Defense Community.

"History," said John Foster Dulles, "will not soon forget..."

Dulles spoke fluently, rarely referring to his sheet of notes.

Breaking a cardinal rule for TV appearances, he didn't talk directly at the camera—and thus to the people watching on television. He talked, mostly, to the President. You saw only the side of his face. But you had a feeling of being in on a direct conversation with the President, who doled from time to time on a pad of paper.

Dulles wound up with a warm tribute to the President. He said the Paris and London agreements were "very largely" the result of Eisenhower's leadership. The President, in turn, praised Dulles for a "brilliant" job and said maybe all hands should give him a rising vote of thanks.

Nobody seemed quite sure whether to rise then and wait until later, however. And the first Cabinet meeting ever held from coast to coast, so to speak, ended on this note of mild indigestion.

Fire Leaves 1,000 Homeless in Korea

SEOUL (U)—Fire today destroyed about 200 houses and left 1,000 persons homeless in Chunchon, 50 miles northeast of here.

Korean Officials Accused in Bank Loan Investigation

SEOUL (U)—Former Prime Minister Paik Too Chin and several Finance Ministry officials today were charged with using "improper procedures" in getting bank loans for friends, business acquaintances and former assemblymen.

The charge appeared in a report made public by a 10-man special investigating committee of the South Korean National Assembly. The committee is controlled by members of President Syngman Rhee's Liberal party.

The report said friends and business acquaintances took advantage of the position held by Paik and other finance officials to get bank loans without proper security.

The loans reportedly totaled about 100 million hwan (approximately $550,000 figured at the official rate of 180 hwan to $1).

The committee demanded removal of "those government and bank officials from their posts... and also punishment for them in accordance with the law."

If You Like People Life Can Be Fun

If you like people, you can find friends, fun and adventure in any corner of the world, says Madeline Cuniff, a decorative blonde who has one of the world's most glamorous jobs.

As head of Pan American's passenger service division, she meets and aids travelers from every nation on earth as they pass through that international crossroads, Idlewild Airport. Also in connection with her job, she flies all over the world to exchange ideas and get acquainted with others doing the same job in the airline's foreign divisions. Says she:

"I just naturally like people of all kinds, shapes and sizes. I can get along with any of them, no matter whether we speak the same language or not. Whether they come from Hindustan or Kalamazoo, they have the same human problems and fears and friendliness. It's my job to get acquainted with them all, and see that they get where they're going."

In Madeline's division are 84 girls, working on three shifts around the clock. They come from Germany, France, Spain, Greece, Finland, Sweden and the Orient, so that a traveler from almost any country can be met by a pretty, friendly girl who speaks his language and probably knows his home town.

Survey Indicates Democratic Control Of Next Senate

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times said Monday a survey indicates Democratic control of the next U. S. Senate "by a narrow margin."

Times correspondents reported Democratic candidates leading in 25 of 37 races. Should they win, the party will have control by three seats, with this lineup: 49 Democrats, 46 Republicans, 1 independent—just the reverse of the current Senate.

The newspaper's survey showed Democrats ahead in New Jersey, Kentucky, Wyoming and Nevada contests for seats now held by Republicans.

It said Rep. George Bender, Republican, seems to be ahead of Sen. Thomas A. Burke, Democrat, in Ohio, but that many consider this race a "toss-up."

There is general agreement that Democrats will win 14 other Senate seats because of "established voting habits," the Times said, listing Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, two, Oklahoma, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

The survey gave the GOP "certain winners" in six contests: Kansas, South Dakota, Nebraska, two, New Hampshire, two.

Democrats reportedly have the edge in seven other hotly contested races—in Colorado, Delaware, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Montana and New Mexico—and the GOP candidates in five: California, Idaho, Massachusetts, Michigan and Oregon.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Mrs. Charles N. Jordan of a suburban Webster Groves got a surprise last night when she finished rehearsal for a church play.

No Teeth in Claim, He's Left Without Bite

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Harry J. Lipset says the last time he saw his false teeth was just before he underwent a surgical operation at Los Angeles General Hospital last July 27.

He filed a claim against the County Board of Supervisors yesterday for $5,450 and said persistent questioning of hospital personnel while he was convalescing failed to disclose any clue to the teeth.

The county counsel said Lipset can't put the bite on the county, however, because there are no teeth in state laws governing such claims.

CAR TIPS

By Al Speltz

(Editor's note: This is another in the series of articles to be published every Tuesday as a service to readers of The Winona Daily News who are interested in automotive maintenance. The author is a certified engine mechanic and contributor to technical magazines.)

'LIVE' AND 'DEAD' STORAGE

In last week's article I tried to talk you out of storing your automobiles. I promised, also, to give some tips to those of you who must store them.

If at all possible, keep the engine "alive" during the storage period. Run it at least once every two weeks. If it is stored in a warm garage, warm it up, say, every second Saturday. If it is in a cold garage, run it whenever a mild day comes along. Don't try to start it when the temperature is 30 below!

Be sure to run the engine long enough each time to get normal temperature and pressure readings. Move the car out of the garage for the warm-up! If it has a fresh air heater, use it, — keeping open only one window on the leeward side of the car. Be careful not to obstruct the tail pipe with snow. If you happen to be using an alcohol type anti-freeze with a 160 degree thermostat, you can prevent boiling during the warm-up by using the heater as a radiator. The heater temperature control must, of course, be set to "hot," and the blower must be operating.

Even if you are preparing your car for "dead" storage, you should fill the cooling system with an anti-freeze mixture. It isn't necessary to protect the system for the lowest temperature ever recorded by the Weather Bureau! An alcohol mixture good for zero, for example, will cause no structural damage even at 30 below. Such a mixture, however, will not circulate until warmed to zero.

Be sure that the crankcase oil is clean and free from any traces of water. Pour about a quart of

Foreign Relations Post Would Be George's Choice

WASHINGTON (AP)—Veteran Sen. George (D-Ga.) plans to take over chairmanship of the Foreign Relations Committee if the Democrats win Senate control in next week's voting, he said today.

George, dean of the Senate with 32 years of service, would have choice of two top spots—head of the Foreign Relations or Finance committees—in the event of a Democratic victory.

He once was chairman of foreign relations briefly in 1941 but then took over the finance post as soon as that chairmanship opened up. He has headed the tax-writing Finance Committee for about 10 years during all Democratic-controlled Congresses since 1941.

However, he wrote from his home at Vienna, Ga., to a reporter that "I am of the opinion that I would elect" to become foreign relations chairman if the Democrats organize the Senate in January.

engine oil into the fuel tank; then fill the tank with gasoline.

Run the engine long enough to get the anti-freeze to all parts of the cooling and heating system. Follow the procedure I mentioned above to prevent boiling.

A few seconds before you stop the engine, pour some light oil into the carburetor air horn (if the air cleaner isn't too difficult to remove). If you pour in the right amount of oil at the right time, the engine will start its "hibernation" with a protective coating on the exposed combustion chamber surfaces and on the inner surfaces of the exhaust pipe, muffler, and tail pipe.

Finally, remove the battery and store it where it will be protected from freezing.

Adenauer Coming To U.S. for Talks With Eisenhower

BONN, Germany (AP)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer left Bonn by plane today for an eight-day visit in the United States. He will confer with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles on agreements reached at last week's Paris conference to free and rearm West Germany as a partner in the Western defense alliance and a new Soviet proposal for big power talks on the reunification of Germany.

Shortly before his departure, he told the German people in a nationwide radio address he will submit the Paris accords to Parliament

Amendment No. 3 A Citizens Measure

Amendment No. 3, to be voted on in the Nov. 2 election, has been given the support of leading civic groups, including the League of Women Voters of Minnesota, the Citizens League, the Republican and Democratic Farmer-Labor parties, the State Bar Association and the Minnesota Farmers Union. It has been called the citizens amendment because it affects the lives of all citizens in Minnesota.

In simple language the amendment provides that:

1. Any revision of the state constitution must be submitted to the people for approval.

2. The revised constitution must be approved by three-fifths of all those voting on the question.

3. Members of the Legislature may serve as delegates to a constitutional convention.

This amendment will assure citizens the right of exercising their privilege of voting for or against a revised constitution. Passage of this amendment will indicate citizen interest in constitutional revision.

In order to pass, Amendment 3 needs "yes" votes from the majority of all persons voting in the election—not just those voting on the amendment. A voter who fails to vote on any amendment is, according to Minnesota law, casting a "no" vote.

Vote yes on Amendment No. 3.

The President Needs A Republican Congress

President Eisenhower is making a personal fight to win Republican majorities in Congress. He is on sound ground for he knows that this election will determine whether he will serve the nation as an effective or ineffective President.

It is an historic and inescapable fact that when the executive and the legislative are politically divided partisanship takes the upper hand and the result, to use the President's own words, is "stagnation and inaction, a time of half measures or no measures at all."

Nor is that just an idle thought. It has come true whenever a president has had a Congress of the opposite political party. Invariably, in such a situation, Congress has been more intent to frustrate and embarrass a president than to give him cooperation. It isn't a pretty picture but it is a true one. The anxiety of a party to create a situation that will bring at the next election a change in the White House and a president of their own political faith, affects and dominates everything.

There is evidence of this, even this early. Despite the fact that the Korean War came to an end under the Eisenhower administration, that American boys were not sent to Indochina, and that the Democrats earlier at times supported and praised the administration's foreign policy, Democratic candidates have since gone overboard in partisanship on foreign policy, with the top Democrats stating that the Eisenhower policy has "put the nation in peril" and other alarmist statements for the purpose of luring votes.

The President knows that if the Democrats win Congress their objectives will be to help the administration to failure. He knows that the divided political situation will leave the nation with a government which will have divided responsibility, which is actually no responsibility.

Election of a Democratic Congress will leave Eisenhower in a strange and ineffective position. All polls show that his popularity is still tremendous, and the people have great confidence in him. He has personally entered the campaign to elect a Republican Congress—perhaps to a degree that no other president has ever done—because he knows that without it, as President, his arms will be tied.

For Minnesota and other states, which so strongly supported Ike in 1952—and apparently still feel the same way about it—it scarcely makes sense if in this election they choose candidates who have always been strongly New Deal, pro-Truman, and anti-Eisenhower, and who will be more interested in frustrating rather than helping the President during the remainder of his first term.—Pot, Pourri in the Austin, Minn., Daily Herald.

Ten months later (lo and behold!) she swept into a Park Avenue drawing room, bedecked in sables and jewels, the bride of a fabulously wealthy Wall Street tycoon. "How did you do it?" I whispered.

"It was simple," she drawled, flashing what must have been the Hope diamond in my eyes. "I saw at a glance that he had a great deal to offer—so I decided he might as well offer it to me!"

Committee Seeking Effective Congress

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

NEW YORK—There can be no objection to any citizens organizing themselves into a committee to influence public opinion, provided it is all done on the up-and-up, with finances all made public. When such committees contribute financially to a candidate, that must, under the law, be made public, but it is not necessary for a list to be made known of those who contribute to the committee. That is a voluntary action on the part of any committee.

It is unseemly to question the right of the gentlemen who compose the national committee for an effective Congress to provide "... research and technical assistance to members of Congress of both parties who are endeavoring to restore a climate in which there can be sober resolution of national problems..." If a senator lacks the ability or the staff to prepare the material for his speeches or even to write the speeches, he probably will accept manuscripts from wherever they come. Some speeches read as though they were produced by a stamping machine.

UNDOUBTEDLY the voters who elected the particular senators and representatives so aided assumed that only they were their constituents. They must have assumed that they were selecting able men who could take care of themselves. It is also probable that the aforesaid constituents had no notion that a group of men whose offices are at 850 Fifth Avenue in New York City were contributing funds to candidates in various parts of the country because no candidate has yet publicly proclaimed allegiance to such a committee. On this subject, the national committee for an effective Congress says:

"This year, we have already forwarded substantial aid to several outstanding senatorial candidates. Your help in this connection will be pinpointed on those contests where it will do most to elect the best possible Senate for the six critical years ahead."

Also, they say: "Please write your check as large as possible—and send it, made out to the National Committee for an Effective Congress, today."

Such an appeal for funds is signed by Oscar Hammerstein II, Sidney H. Scheurer and Telford Taylor. There is nothing in this appeal for money to show who is president of this organization, but there is a "campaign director," Maurice Rosenblatt, and an "executive secretary," George E. Agree. There is also a "board of advisers," which includes the following among others: Stringfellow Barr, George H. Combs, Gardner Jackson, Isidore Lipschutz, Robert R. Nathan, Arthur M. Schlesinger, Robert E. Sherwood, Michael Straight, Nathan Straus, Sumner Welles. I do not know whom these advisers advise.

IT IS INTERESTING to note that in 1952, this National Committee for an Effective Congress endorsed the following candidates for the United States Senate: Dennis Chavez (D-NM), John S. Cooper (R-Ky), Ralph E. Flinders (R-Vt.), Dwight P. Griswold (R-Neb), Irving M. Ives (R-NY), Henry M. Jackson (D-Wash.), Harley M. Kilgore (D-W Va.), Mike Mansfield (D-Mont), Frederick G. Payne (R-Maine), W. Stuart Symington (D-Mo).

The word used is "endorsed." Whether that means that they also endorsed these candidates financially does not appear in the literature, which does say:

"Contributions are allocated to candidates on the basis of where they are most needed and will do the most good, as determined through up-to-the-minute evaluation of the progress of each campaign."

"Support is given only where there is a clear choice between the candidates running."

"Support is given only where there is a clear possibility that it can affect the outcome of the election."

The theory of our system of government is that the voters of each congressional district and of each state choose those who are to represent them in Congress. It was never intended that citizens of other areas should choose for them or should handicap their candidates. Nowadays a number of groups try to do exactly that for citizens all over the country, some by publishing lists of those who voted right or wrong, some by shoveling campaign funds into particular districts. The cost of running for public office has become prohibitive, so that candidates are often forced to seek funds where they ought not to be sought.

Republicans Face Tough Battles in Three States

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—Here are some more quick looks at the red-hot election picture: In Pennsylvania, the GOP candidate for governor, Lloyd Wood, is a turkey farmer. The Democratic candidate, George Leader, is a chicken farmer. The low price of eggs is figuring heavily in the farm vote. For the first time in 20 years, a Democrat in Pennsylvania is given a real chance to win. Reasons are: Unemployment, especially in the coal regions; plus graft in Gov. Fine's administration. Fifteen of his officials, including his personal secretary, Fred Hare, and one member of his cabinet, Artemus Leslie, have been indicted for making (forcing political contributions).

On top of this, when Congress voted increased old-age pensions, the Fine administration proceeded to reduce the state's share to oldsters by the amount of increase voted in Washington. . . . Oldsters were really sore. . . . Highly respected GOP senator big Jim Duff, an old enemy of Gov. Fine's, has been trotted out to try to pull Republican factions together but everyone knows his heart isn't in it. . . . So Pennsylvania is certain to send more Democratic congressmen to Washington.

The GOP in Michigan is hoisted on its own petard—in fact on two of them. No. 1 is the so-called "General Motors Administration" in Washington; No. 2 is the political strategy of Chevrolet dealer Arthur Summerfield, now postmaster general. . . . GM gave Chrysler such stiff competition that Chrysler has closed down early to bring out new models. Other companies have followed suit. Summerfield begged the motor moguls not to retort until after elections, but General Motors competition was too tough. They disregarded his pleas. That's why Detroit faces one of its worst unemployment periods right now.

It was Postmaster Summerfield who also maneuvered to put Pat McNamara, the Democratic candidate for the Senate, into the race. . . . Summerfield, of course, worked behind the scenes, got the AFL and teamsters to put up McNamara in the Democratic primary to offset the late Blair Moody and his powerful CIO backing. But since Moody's death, McNamara has united CIO-AFL backing. And judging by the loud alarms sounded by GOP Sen. Homer Ferguson, McNamara may win.

Out in Oregon Sen. Guy Cordon, Republican, ran paid ads in the American Legion newspaper attacking the military record of his opponent, Dick Neuberger. "During World War II," read the ad, "Cordon's opponent, through political connections, got himself a soft, safe job in the service where he could continue his profitable writing career." . . . The Cordon machine began spreading this story all over the state. They played up Cordon as a "real veteran" who had served as state commander of the American Legion. . . . A check of Cordon's military career, however, revealed that this "real veteran" was in no more position to brag than Cong. Stringfellow. He had been in World War I only two months and two weeks—from Sept. 2, 1918, to Nov. 28, 1918.

Neuberger, on the other hand, was in World War II thirteen times as long—from July 15, 1942 to Aug. 12, 1945—a little over three years. He served much of that time in Alaska. . . . This three-year service turned out to be longer than the total military careers of Cordon plus the other top GOP candidates in Oregon. . . . Sen. Cordon didn't even give up his job as assessor of Douglas County during his brief 85-day training period in the Army.

It's been crowded out of the headlines, but 17 states are at each other's throats in a transportation battle that may drive small trucking firms out of business. . . . It's the kind of interstate war which the founding fathers sought to prevent when they set up a homogeneous United States and provided that no state could charge a tariff against another.

The state of Ohio began the battle when, because of heavy truck traffic across its centrally located borders, it slapped an extra "third stricture" tax on out-of-state trucks. New York immediately followed suit, also imposed a ton-mile levy aimed at squeezing as much in taxes as possible from transient trucks.

This set off a whole series of retaliatory measures. Other states fought back with their own taxes, some of them especially aimed at competing states, so that the founding fathers' whole concept of no interstate taxes or tariffs against another state has gone glimmering.

Though under the constitution no state can tax or put a tariff on the products of another state, it can tax another state's trucks out of existence.

For instance, a big multi-axled truck from Indiana can travel through Kentucky and Georgia to Florida for $120 in taxes. But an Ohio truck going through the same states has to pay $360—chiefly because of retaliatory taxes.

As a result, some 15 trucking companies had to move their headquarters out of Ohio last year. They couldn't afford the extra taxes slapped on by other states.

Inhaled Ethyl Alcohol Vapor Stops Cough

By H. N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

Coughing is, as a rule, a useful procedure. It either serves to help get air into the lungs or helps get rid of material that has accumulated in the throat or the air passages in the lungs.

If the coughing does not have a useful purpose, it is important to get rid of it, since it puts a strain on the body. Useless coughing may develop because the air is too dry because of month breathing, or because there are dried, thick secretions in the air passages, or some allergic disturbances of the respiratory passages. Hence, these types of coughs should be eliminated.

This can be done by the giving of quieting drugs. However, a simple method of getting rid of such coughs has been suggested.

This consists of having a patient breathe in a vapor from a bottle of 70 per cent ethyl alcohol. The vaporized bottle of this alcohol is left at the patient's bedside, together with a small gauze sponge.

The patient is instructed, at the first sign of a tickle in his chest, to put two teaspoonfuls of this alcohol on to the gauze while he slowly exhales or blows air into the lungs over the piece of gauze. Then he holds the sponge near his opened mouth and slowly breathes in.

As he finishes this breathing, he will have a sensation of moisture in the chest, whereupon he continues breathing a little more rapidly through the sponge held close to his mouth, and it is found that the cough completely disappears.

This method seems to be especially helpful for patients after operation, when coughing is undesirable.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

G. W. H.: What causes a clicking sound in my ears when I breathe?

Answer: This disorder in all likelihood is due to some blocking or inflammation of the Eustachian tubes which lead from the throat to the ears.

A physician should be consulted so that, if such an obstruction is present, it can be relieved.

Army's Writing Done by Pro-Reds, Jenner Claims

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) said Sunday night the Army's information and education program in World War II "was heavily loaded with pro-Soviet propaganda and staffed in many instances by men with Communist records."

Among other things, Jenner said GIs were exposed to the Soviet information bulletin, a publication of the Soviet Embassy, Russia and the United States were allies during the war.

Letters to the Editor

Answers Statements
of Mrs. Waldo

To the Editor:

The Letter to the Editor column Oct. 21 carried a lengthy letter from Mrs. Floyd Waldo which contains some views which are probably open to misinterpretation and definitely open to argument.

When she listed the causes for farm product surpluses at least two were missing. Let us first consider a very important one: "Reduced consumption," particularly in regard to the butter surplus. The 1948 Democratic platform contained the following statement: "We favor the repeal of discriminatory taxes on the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine." Bill No. 3 was rushed through Congress by the Democrat Administration in 1948 removing the taxes. In 1947 per capita consumption of butter was 11.1 pounds per year and this dropped to eight pounds by 1952. In 1947 per capita consumption of oleo was 4.9 pounds per year and this increased to eight pounds per person by 1952. This was a drop of 3.1 pounds per year on butter and a like increase of 3.1 pounds per capita on oleomargarine.

Certainly, this is a serious and big reason or cause for surplus growth of government butter in warehouse - freezers. Wasn't the above situation brought about by the same party (Democrat) that is now calling for 100 per cent parity, rigid supports and government control?

Another cause for surplus stocks of dairy products was the following: When the Democrats were defeated in 1952, they acted promptly to create problems for the incoming Republicans, the dairy farmer being the innocent victim. Two months before leaving office, Sec. Brannan removed restrictions on foreign dairy imports and huge dairy surpluses resulted.

Another cause for the surplus problem in dairy products was that the Democrat Administrations took away out-of-state markets for fluid milk from Minnesota and Wisconsin farmers by the imposition of milk marketing restrictions and by imposing unrealistic prices in many southern and eastern states. Also by encouraging milk production in southern states. I am happy to state that under the new farm program the trend has been reversed. During August 1954, out-of-state milk shipments from Wisconsin alone were up 20 per cent or 30 million pounds—and were the highest of any month in the last five years. The month of September 1954 will have even higher shipments.

In regard to Mrs. Waldo's statement regarding the extra glass of milk per day to our Armed Forces in which she said "it took 20 months to do that bit." Evidently she means 20 months of the Eisenhower Administration! This is indeed a compliment to that Administration! Her own words mean that the Eisenhower Administration did in 20 months what the Democrats did not do in 20 years.

Concerning her views on REA. The actions of the Eisenhower Administration in regard to REA prove her very wrong. Here is what the Administration did:

1. Administration has set records for speed in handling loans. Backlog is lowest since World War II.

2. Electric loans last fiscal year totaled $167 million. This was higher than the two preceding years and paved the way for 171,000 new consumers.

3. Telephone loans last fiscal year totaled $75 million, nearly twice previous year's total. This amounted to nearly two thirds of loans made since program began in 1949.

4. Funds available for loans this year are: $226 million for electric, $38 million for telephone.

Now let us consider the Dixon-Yates, TVA to Atomic Energy Commission argument: Sen. Fulbright who is a good Democrat, in addressing the Senate last July 6th, submitted figures to show that the Atomic Energy Commission has been paying more to TVA for its electric power than is charged to TVA's other customers in its area. Sen. Fulbright said that it looked to him as if "the TVA has been siphoning out of EC quite substantial sums of money in many cases at a higher rate than is taken out of local citizens, enabling TVA thereby to subsidize local citizens in a very satisfactory manner." Undoubtedly TVA could charge less for power than can private companies which must pay taxes and interest on their capital, but what the government would save on one side of the ledger it would lose on the other.

The previous Letter to the Editor charged that the Dixon-Yates contract would result in payments of $20,748,000 a year for 25 years from the government. The Bureau of the Budget has pointed out that "the only element of profit in this proposal is the return to the sponsors on the $5,500,000 of equity capital."

This would amount to $495,000 annually." Contrast the foregoing two views!

We also find that her letter states "no federal taxes to pay," by Dixon-Yates. This is incorrect since taxes are necessarily one of the items in the company's cost structure, and, as such would have to be included in the rate charged to the Atomic Energy Commission. Or will Mrs. Waldo now admit that the difference in taxes between private and public power is practically the whole difference.

Another statement was "all we farmers can get out of this Administration is a much begrudged 75 per cent of parity." This again is not correct since the 75 per cent figure is the floor and prices to farmers have been above the 75 per cent figure most of the time. Let us not forget that the farm program in action today is the same program which was written into law by the Democrat Administration. No deviation from or violation of the law has occurred. Perhaps, "the chickens are coming home to roost!" Or are we "reaping the harvest" from an unworkable and unsound Democrat program?

All of the issues raised in Mrs. Waldo's letter are complex. Every one has had books written concerning it. Her letter raised many issues or charges which she did not back up with any explanation or discussion. They were simply charges hanging in the air. It is a pleasure for me to "air out" some of the overlooked items.

Praises Proposal to Outlaw Communist Party

To the Editor:

The Nixon politicians are blazing the trail and you hear all the campaign oratory about how the government was "crawling with Communism" and because the GOP was unable to find a single Communist among more than 2 million government employees, it had to make up a "number game" to fool the public about the number supposedly disloyal people in the government, therefore they invented a new term—"security risks."

The truth is that nearly all of the "security risks" had no connection with subversion. Most were over-talkative, or overly nervous, or heavy drinkers, but not subversives.

This Congress failed to come to grips with the overriding problem of "Communism." Lacking an effective program of its own Congress merely "whittled" away at the Administration's moderate proposals. In the closing days of the last session, Sen. Humphrey on Aug. 12, 1954 offered in the Senate a proposal to outlaw the Communist party. It was his belief that there was a tendency on the part of a great many Republicans to keep "Communism as a political issue in the campaign and there was a tendency on the part of a great many Democrats to resent what they considered to be this "unfair" Republican political strategy.

The Communist party has attacked the Humphrey proposal in strong terms. There is a reason to believe they consider the Humphrey proposal to be a serious threat to their activities in the United States.

The Humphrey proposal is making it possible for the Justice Department to require members of the Communist party to conform to the requirements of the Internal Security Act of 1950 without further delay, penalizing members of the Communist party by making them subject to the "provisions and penalties" of the Internal Security Act. This means they have to register as members of a "Communist action" organization and upon failure to register will be subject to a fine of $10,000 or a five-year prison term or both.

This measure to outlaw the Communist party is not only desirable, but also constitutional based upon opinion by leading Washington attorneys.

He was joined with 18 members of the Senate who asked for the opportunity to co-sponsor it. After a series of votes both the Senate and the House of Representatives overwhelmingly supported the proposal.

In 1952 the year the Democrats were voted in office, 102,991 persons openly voted the Communist ticket. When the Democrats left office two years ago, there were less than one-fourth that number.

In our country today there are possibly some 25,000 doctrinal Communists. The FBI knows pretty well where they are. This fear of Communist infiltration has been greatly exaggerated. According to J. Edgar Hoover, "The key to smashing the Communist movement in America was the prosecution of the Communist leaders—accomplished by a Democratic Administration."

Original Drama To Be First Teresan Play

"Magdalene and Judas," an original three-act drama by the Rev. Raymond Leopold Bruckberger, O.P., will be the first theatrical offering at the College of Saint Teresa during the 1954-55 school year. The show, directed by Frank Dolan of the department of speech, will be given in four performances at the college auditorium December 8-11.

The play itself is not a religious work in the generally accepted sense of the word, according to Dolan, but is instead a dramatic work, taken from Father Bruckberger's best-seller, "Mary Magdalene." The play takes a slightly different tack in interpreting Magdalene, a courtesan in the court of King Herod. It is a study of the undercurrent of political and emotional events immediately preceding and following the death of Christ, and runs the gamut from scheming treachery to high comedy in its ramifications.

Appearing in the title roles will be Miss Mary Ann Magee, a senior at the College of Saint Teresa, and John Marzocco, faculty member at the college.

Other lead roles, interpreted by members of the Teresan Players, the Burbage Players of St. Mary's College and other non-college persons, include John the Baptist, Thomas Berghs, Winona; Salome, Miss Jeanne Wilson; Sarah, Miss Suzanne Laramie; Martha, Miss Sue Quinlan; Lazarus, Edward DeGrood; Cotter High School; the musician, Frank Lewis, Minneapolis; Jesus Christ, Fred Thompson; Winona; Simon, William McDonnell; and the high priest of Herod's court, George Schuman.

Iota Chapter Conducts Panel On Recruitment

Two new members, Miss Magda Talle and Mrs. M. L. Spencer Sr., were initiated by Iota Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, Monday evening at a ceremony held in the social room at Winona State Teachers College. Miss Talle is an active member and Mrs. Spencer, the local chapter's first honorary member, Miss Louisa Farmer, Tau state founder, was initiation chairman.

Dinner followed at the YMCA and a brief business meeting was conducted by the president, Miss Helen Hillier. Yearbooks were distributed and a program of panel discussions conducted. The membership had been assigned to five groups each of which discussed some phase of the theme for all chapters of Delta Kappa Gamma, "Selective Recruitment of Teachers."

The Misses Louise Bloom, Doris Skow and Georgia Garlid answered the question, "What factors attract people to the teaching profession?" Miss Gladys Lapham, Houston County superintendent, and Mrs. Harry Harrington discussed ways of making local communities aware of "the over-abundance of children and the under-supply of classrooms and teachers."

The third group consisted of the Misses Helen Frickard, Margaret Voelker, Elsie Sattel, Inez Adams and Dorothy Heider. Panel four included Mrs. S. A. Boyd, Mrs. Karl Brengrenzer and the Misses Louisa Farmer, Verlie Sather and Ruth Kotschade who discussed techniques which have been successful in past recruitment efforts.

In conclusion the Misses Ruth Pallas, Mildred Khome, Ann Rupp and Kathryn Dunlap pulled the program into personal focus by a review of "the teacher's role in recruitment."

Many personal experiences, both serious and humorous, were introduced by panelists to point up conclusions and opinions formed by reading and considering this vital question of how to secure an adequate number of properly qualified teachers.

There appeared to be general agreement upon several subjects including the following: Improved professional standards and better salaries as added stimuli; the need to utilize press and radio in "positive publicity"; the value of parent-teacher conferences in interesting parents in teaching careers for children who give promise of being successful teachers; early beginning of recruitment; devising ways of holding desirable personnel, the importance of recruiting teachers for rural schools.

It was felt that effective plans should be formed on all levels to secure and hold good teachers, and the promising beginning of the governor's commission on education was cited as a good example on the state level.

Locally, the work of state PTA's in awarding eight scholarships in Minnesota was mentioned. Several speakers commented on the advantage to Winona area students of the excellent colleges here.

One conclusion repeatedly reached was that "Teachers themselves must be active recruiters. Any profession which does not constantly recruit new members is due for extinction."

Qualities of vibrant personality, attractive appearance, genuine love of work (and of children), sympathy and understanding were mentioned as those of a good recruiter.

Stressed also were the importance of high standards and ideals, the status of the teacher in the community and the importance of home background in developing successful teachers who will, in turn, attract future teachers.

The next meeting of Iota Chapter will be Nov. 22 at which time members will learn more about the work of the governor's committee on teacher supply from Harry Reynolds, secretary of that group.

The program last evening was arranged by the Misses Gertrude Finch, Edna Nelson and Margaret Marshall, program committee.

Home Birds, Topic For Chautauqua Club Program

"Winona abounds in birds of every description from the drab starlings and common sparrow to the colorful goldfinch, rose-breasted grosbeak, cardinal, the noisy bluejay and the gentle bluebird," Mrs. George W. Engstrom reminded her listeners in her talk on "American Home Birds" at the meeting of the Chautauqua Club at the home of Mrs. Harold Eklund, 384 E. Broadway, Monday afternoon.

The club president, Mrs. C. R. Kollofski, presided at the meeting and the members joined in reading the "Collect." During the business session, Mrs. A. J. Anderson was elected secretary succeeding Mrs. T. F. Skorseth who had resigned. Mrs. S. M. Hardt, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Engstrom who explained that at a hint from a friend who said, "Pick something you would like to study and never find time for," was all she needed to start her extensive research on birds frequenting the Winona area.

Mrs. Engstrom brought out numerous interesting facts such as the following: "The feathers of the lapid bird are brown and blackish overlaid by prismatic cells which reflect only blue light rays. If it were not for birds, insects would increase to such an extent that they would soon devour every living plant. Male wrens in early spring, fill every available nesting place with coarse twigs; but after the female makes her choice, she discards all of this to build a nest to her own liking."

"To attract the ruby-throat hummingbird, tie a bright ribbon around a small vial or test tube, wire it to a branch, and keep it filled with sweetened water. Cowbirds avoid domestic problems by laying their eggs in the nests of other birds, trusting their young to unsuspecting and harassed foster-parents."

"Chickadees often hang upside down on a twig while hunting for insects. The white-breasted nuthatch creeps up or down a tree trunk with equal ease."

Mrs. Engstrom suggested placing inducements such as "bird-houses, feeders, and birdbaths in your yards. Your reward will be a summer filled with song."

Mrs. Hardt announced that the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harold Nystrom, 304 Grand St., Nov. 8. Roy Andersen of Akseil Andersen furniture store will present the program.

After the program, Mrs. Eklund served refreshments. She was assisted by Mrs. T. W. Smeed.

"Vel soaks dishes clean. SAVES YOU ALL THE HARD WORK!" says Mrs. Irene Buckley, mother of 2.

NO "DETERGENT BURN" TO HANDS WITH VEL!

Prove it yourself — this "HAND-HEAT TEST" shows why.

Dip hands in water. Then put a tablespoonful of any laundry detergent in one hand — put a tablespoonful of VEL in the other.

FEEL THE HEAT! from wash-day detergents, indicating presence of irritating alkalis and harsh chemicals that cause "Detergent Burn!"

FEEL NO HEAT WITH VEL because Vel contains no irritating alkalis or harsh wash-day chemicals to cause "Detergent Burn!"

Marvelous for dishes and finest fabrics!

FHA Inquiry Only Starting, Capehart Says

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind.) says the Federal Housing Administration is uncovering what he says is a "national scandal" in the hundreds of indictments over the nation. Here to make a telecast on behalf of Val Bjornson, Republican candidate against Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) Capehart said the FHA inquiry could be called "a national scandal" and that "there was downright crookedness."

Capehart said he thought the housing law itself was good but that it had been maladministered and that "there was downright crookedness."

For his part, Humphrey said today in a talk prepared for the St. Paul League of Women Voters that "government is everybody's business, starting at the ballot box."

The senator called for establishment of a Joint Committee on Internal Security to "get results instead of a headline-hunting competition" out of investigations, and a uniform "code of fair play" to clean up such inquiries.

Orville Freeman, DFL gubernatorial aspirant speaking at the same meeting, called for revision of Minnesota's century-old constitution. He said failure to modernize government procedure was costing a high price in waste and inefficiency, in neglected government services and in unnecessary costs of millions of dollars per year.

Departing from his usual quiet campaigning stance, Gov. Anderson told a Park Rapids audience Monday that "I am mad."

"I don't get that way very often," Anderson said. "But when I do, I'm ready to speak my piece and I am going to do just that for the rest of this campaign."

"I've had enough of their (DFL) efforts to smear my administration and myself," the governor said. "No one is going to question my honesty or that of my administration and get away with it."

Shortly after the governor spoke, Freeman answered with a radio talk in which he assailed what he termed the "creeping do-nothingness" of Anderson's regime. Freeman said the present administration was inefficient and wasteful, had done nothing about school or highway problems, and has made no commitment as to how it stands on a state sales tax or farm price supports.

Smog Takes Sting Out of Junior's Bum Report Card

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If Junior gets a bum report card here he now has a new excuse—smog.

Claude L. Reeves, acting superintendent of schools, told the board of education Monday the recent 18-day siege of air pollution "has reacted adversely upon children."

"There has been a substantial increase of absences," he noted. "All schools within the heavy smog area report a substantial increase incidence of headaches, coughs, eye strain, excessive nasal discharge and similar troubles."

"Schools report increased restlessness with more playground fights and other turmoil. Children are irritable and teachers are disconcerted and frustrated at having to work in an atmosphere of smog."

For his part, Humphrey said today in a talk prepared for the St. Paul League of Women Voters that "government is everybody's business, starting at the ballot box."

The senator called for establishment of a Joint Committee on Internal Security to "get results instead of a headline-hunting competition" out of investigations, and a uniform "code of fair play" to clean up such inquiries.

Split Decision Upholds Legality of Ryan Candidacy

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—A 5-to-2 split decision upholding the legality of the petition for nomination filed by Frank P. Ryan of Minneapolis as candidate for the U.S. Senate, was issued today by the Minnesota Supreme Court.

The high court heard oral arguments Oct. 8, when it announced that Ryan was entitled to have his name on the ballot, but the formal decision revealing how the court stood on the matter was not made public until today.

Ryan filed as a candidate on the Independent-Liberal ticket Oct. 2. Byron G. Allen, Democratic national committeeman for Minnesota, Mrs. Ione Hunt, Democratic committeewoman, and Ray Hemmaway of Albert Lea, DFL state party chairman, challenged the filing on grounds it was filed too late and also alleged irregularities in the signatures on the petition.

Associate Justices Frank T. Gallagher and Thomas F. Gallagher dissented, and each wrote separate memorandums. The majority decision was written by Chief Justice Dell.

Democratic Win Will Aid Left-Wing Element, Nixon Says

POCATELLO, Idaho (AP)—Vice President Nixon said last night that if the Democrats gain control of Congress next November it "will give a tremendous boost to the left-wing elements within the party."

He described the left-wing element as a group led by former President Truman, Adlai Stevenson and National Chairman Stephen Mitchell.

"Any gains which the Democrats might make which would enable them to control the Congress must inevitably come from its ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) left wing and not from those who represent more moderate views."

Nixon pointed his cross-country campaign tour toward Oregon today after passing through Idaho in a one-night swing.

In Pocatello, where he addressed more than 2,500, he also called for the re-election of Idaho's senior senator, Henry C. Dworshak, saying, "Send back the man who can get things done for Idaho."

Lawyers Endorse Present Supreme Court Justices

Lawyers of Winona County have unanimously endorsed the present members of the Minnesota Supreme Court who are candidates for re-election.

The terms of Chief Justice Roger L. Dell, of Fergus Falls, Associate Justices Thomas Gallagher of Minneapolis, Oscar R. Knutson of Warren and Martin A. Nelson of Austin, will expire this year. All are candidates to succeed themselves. Only two, Chief Justice Dell and Associate Justice Knutson have opposition. In a recent poll of all the lawyers in the state, both Dell and Knutson were endorsed. No vote was taken on the other two justices who have no opposition. The result of this poll was:

For Chief Justice Dell..... 2,250
For his opponent..... 122
For Associate Justice Knutson..... 2,184
For his opponent..... 173

Lawyers stress the fact that the present justices by virtue of their training, many years of judicial and legal experience, educational background and their demonstrated fairness and impartiality are best qualified to serve in these important positions.

Embassy Contacts Architect Freed By Polish Reds

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—A spokesman for the U.S. Embassy here said today the embassy has established contact with Cleveland architect Hermann Field, reported freed recently from a prison in Communist-ruled Poland.

The spokesman refused further information but said: "In view of the circumstances, we refer you to the State Department in Washington, which already is in possession of our report."

Asked whether embassy officials had seen Field, the spokesman said, "Yes, we have established contact with him."

In Washington, a State Department press officer said he had not seen the report and it probably would not be available until his office opened later today.

The Polish government announced yesterday it had freed the Cleveland architect.

A broadcast from Warsaw said an official investigation had shown that Field was the victim of a "frameup by an American agent" in the Polish security service. It said he has been released "and full satisfaction has been given him."

'Closed Area' Ducks

Although interest will shift this weekend from ducks to pheasants for the Minnesota hunter, pictures like the one above have an interest because it shows that there is still an abundance of ducks here and that they are quite tame.

A Daily News photographer got close enough to these green-headed to snap the view with regular lenses. Normally, at this time of year, when most ducks have been shot at, it is almost impossible to get within camera range. The photographer's explanation was, "The birds were in a closed area and knew I would not harm them."

Pheasant Prospects

The over-all Minnesota pheasant picture seems to be a hopeful one. Most every observer we have contacted recently tells of plenty of birds in the western half of the state.

Because of heavy cover it will probably be difficult after the first afternoon to raise the cocks, despite the present favorable morning roadside checks. Most of the corn throughout the pheasant country is yet to be harvested and the undergrowth in the fields is heavy. There are plenty of places for a pheasant to find good concealment and even confuse a dog.

As last year, there is only half day hunting in Minnesota. It is afterwards only, Oct. 30 through Nov. 7, or just two weeks. The shooting hours are noon to sunset. The bag limit three cocks per day, six in possession. It is statewide.

The seasons for the taking of Hungarian partridge and quail open at the same time. The hours for hun are noon to sunset, and the bag the same as pheasant, three per day, six in possession. Hun areas pretty much overlap the better pheasant country in the southwestern corner of the state, although scatter coveys may be found in all of Southern Minnesota. The open season is statewide.

Minnesota's limited number of quail hunters probably would have preferred a later season, but to satisfy this demand it runs for three weekends or through Nov. 14, one week longer than the pheasant and hun season. It is statewide for the first time in years and shooting hours are from sunrise to sunset. The daily limit is ten a day, 15 in possession.

Why the state opened the season at sunrise for quail on a statewide basis, when the pheasant and hun season in the same area is not opened until noon, is one of these riddles that only conservation officials understand. Of course, it is a dumb hunter who would take a pheasant for a quail, and the royalty of quail hunters would not stoop to waste a shell on the lowly pheasant.

Bounty or No Bounty?
The following release comes from the College of Agriculture, University of Wisconsin, and should be of interest to those conservationists who favor the removal of bounty from fox. It also should revive again that old argument—bounty or no bounty:

Madison—Got a bead on a fox? Don't pull that trigger just yet.

Though Wisconsin still pays a bounty on him, the fox may be worth more to a farmer than the cash, says J. J. Hickey, wildlife management specialist at the University of Wisconsin. Unless a fox picks up the poultry habit, he gets his meals cleaning up mice, woodchucks and other pests.

And contrary to popular belief, foxes are not responsible for reducing total game bird numbers, Hickey says. Extensive studies have shown that you get about the same count of quail and pheasant in an area whether foxes are present or not.

Nature acts as an equalizer, he explains. When foxes are kept out, other predators or disease keep wildlife numbers in balance.

Individual foxes tend to become specialists in the type of food they seek. If one picks up a taste for your poultry, go after him by all means. He can be a real menace. But the others will help you get rid of unwanted pests.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH GRANDEIS

The human heart is one thing to the scientist, another to the poet. To the scientist it is "a hollow, muscular pouch, whose interior is divided by a longitudinal partition into two cavities," etc., etc. He will talk about valves and ventricles. He will measure its beats with the electrocardiograph. A broken heart to the physician may be a coronary thrombosis or some other thing with a high sounding foreign name.

But to the poet—"Would you be song endure? Build on the human heart!" wrote Robert Browning, and "Kind hearts are more than coronets" according to Alfred Tennyson.

A little while ago a group of European exchange students was taken to the White House where it met President Eisenhower and had quite a chat with him. After the visit one of the kids was asked what he thought of our President.

"Oh, I like him," said the girl. "He smiles with his heart."

And there, in five words, is perhaps the best description ever given of Mr. Eisenhower and the enormous personal hold he has on the people.

Thousands of words have been written about him. Many writers have been trying to analyze his popularity, a lot of others have been wondering just what it is that makes him such an attractive personality, regardless of what side of the political fence you are on.

He smiles with his heart—that, it, and that is something nobody can fake or simulate. You don't have to be an Eisenhower to smile with your heart. If you do, all those who meet you will feel it instinctively. They will react to it and, if they have any hearts at all, will reciprocate and give you their heart-smiles, too.

The other day Father Ambrose Hyland, for many years chaplain at Clinton State Prison in Dannemora, N. Y., died in his burning automobile.

The doctors think he had a heart attack, dropped his burning cigar, and the car caught fire. That would be the "heart" the scientists talk about.

But Father Hyland had another kind of heart. It beat for the prisoners in his care. He started a church within the prison walls and called it the Chapel of St. Dismas or "The Church of the Good Thief." He wanted to bring "a little bit of Heaven" to his charges, and contributions came from laymen and friends of all faiths.

In a book on Dannemora, one of the country's toughest prisons, Father Hyland was quoted as dismissing Dante's words, "Abandon hope, all ye who enter here," and substituting instead, "That which you bring here in your heart cannot be taken from you at the gate."

Sometimes I wonder whether we do not place entirely too much importance on our physical heart, the heart of the scientist, and neglect that other, that wonderful heart of which the poets speak.

I wonder, too, if there would not be much less medical heart trouble in this world if we paid more attention to the spiritual heart that is in all of us.

Why don't we try it some time?

Britain Looks for Mass Back-to-Work Move in Dock Strike

LONDON (AP)—The government looked hopefully today for signs of a mass back-to-work movement to end Britain's paralyzing dock strike. The strike now is in its 23rd day.

Slightly more than 1,000 men resumed work yesterday in London and Hull, and union officials were striving to get the 43,000 workers still out to follow suit. Other big ports hit by the unofficial walkout include Liverpool, Southampton and Birkenhead.

Chief issue in the work stoppage is a demand by the dockers to put overtime work on a voluntary basis.

$10.81 a Swing

Bob Toski, the bantam blaster of professional golf, has the right idea. According to AP Newsteatures, Toski earned an average of $108.17 per round of golf this year.

The Livingston, N. J., pro, who weighs only 135 pounds, therefore got $10.81 each time he swung at a golf ball in a PGA-sanctioned event.

He earned $55,831.24. During 88 rounds of golf he took 6,100 strokes. His average score was 70.93 per 18 holes.

Seven golfers had better PGA averages than did Toski. However, in taking the "World" title at Tam O'Shanter, Toski picked up $50,000, plus a $50,000 contract to appear in 50 exhibitions.

In the PGA records, Jack Burke of Klamath Lake, N. Y., is second to Toski with winnings of $20,213. Twenty-two pros earned more than $10,000.

At the end of the summer tour U. S. Open champion Ed Furgol had won $12,345. However, Open runnerup Gene Littler, an amateur until last January, won $13,983. Missing from the first 25 money winners are such stars as Ben Hogan, Sam Snead and Jimmy Demaret, each of whom limited his golf during 1954.

The list of undefeated area teams has shrunk considerably since the season started. In Wisconsin, Osseo and Blair are still protecting perfect records, while in Minnesota Eyota and Spring Valley are still unbeaten.

Spring Valley now looks like a good bet to go all the way after beating Caledonia last week in District One competition. Eyota, with four victories in Little Five Conference play, was held to a 2-5 tie with Peterson last week.

The defeat of Winona State by St. Cloud Saturday night closed out any chance of local schools to finish without a loss. Winona State's defeat, coming as it did, may serve to make the city college game here Saturday night more interesting.

The St. Mary's Redmen are still winless, but the dope book usually is discarded when the Terrace Heights play Winona State. The Warriors will be favored in Saturday night's game, but unless they give serious consideration to the Redmen they may be in for a rude jolt.

The Winona High Winhawks play at Northfield and Winona High would be a good bet to win, but for the fact that Northfield can usually be counted on to give the local school trouble. The Cotter High Ramblers play at Rochester Lourdes Friday night in what will be the championship game of the Southern Minnesota Catholic Conference. The Ramblers, pushing to one of their best seasons in recent years, go into the game with a record of four victories, two ties and one loss. The game is Cotter's final for the 1954 season.

Some Right, Some Wrong

There was much more variety in the selections of The Daily News' football forecasting panel. For instance, we were unanimously wrong on only two choices—Minnesota and Wisconsin.

By unanimous we were referring to picks made by King Kong Kelley, Bob Eggleston, Earl Gilbert and Yours Truly. The latter three were all wrong on Winona High's loss to Red Wing, but Kelley didn't join our board in time to make any guesses on that one.

Kelley, our guest selector, had nine correct choices and five not so correct which puts him in the category of the rest of us as far as seasonal results are concerned.

Old Man Reeves, with a few modest blunders, was the luckiest in last week's selections with 12 choices correct and three incorrect—Winona High, Minnesota and Winona State.

Earl Gilbert was right on 10 games and wrong on five. He was the only member of the panel to correctly choose St. Cloud over Winona State. Bob Eggleston had nine right and six wrong.

Kelley didn't name final scores, but the rest of us did and were fairly close in some cases. Eggleston saw Pitt beating Northwestern 14-6 and the actual score was 14-7. Gilbert had Iowa over Indiana by a 28-14 score and the Hawkeyes almost made him honest by winning 27-14.

Reeve selected Duluth over St. Mary's by a 27-6 score, picked that one right on the nose. Law of averages, I guess.

Teams Kelley picked to win that didn't were Winona State, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan State and Mississippi.

Ohio State Takes No. 1 Spot in National Grid Poll

Wisconsin Drops To 8th; Minnesota Not in 1st 20

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

The Associated Press Ohio State's Buckeyes, a collection of football players with roses in their eyes and mayhem in their hearts, have replaced Oklahoma as the No. 1 college team in the opinion of the nation's sports writers and broadcasters.

They earned the honor crushing Wisconsin 31-14 last Saturday while Oklahoma was sliding listlessly through a 21-0 decision over Kansas State. Oklahoma had been on top of The Associated Press poll for three weeks.

Oklahoma collected 10 more first-place votes than Ohio State—74-64—but the Bucks edged ahead on the second-place ballots, of which 69 went to Ohio State and only 49 to the Sooners.

The final count, on the usual 10-9-8, etc., basis, gave Ohio State 1,858 points and Oklahoma 1,834. UCLA, with 45 firsts, was right behind with 1,800 points, and the surprising Arkansas team fourth with 1,351.

Ohio State was fourth last week, while Wisconsin was second to Oklahoma. UCLA, which wallowed Oregon State 61-0, polled a much higher vote than it did a week ago in retaining third place.

Arkansas, a "team of destiny" which came from nowhere to take the Southwest Conference lead and then knocked Mississippi from the ranks of the unbeaten, jumped from seventh to fourth. Army rose from ninth to fifth and West Virginia from 10th to seventh.

The leading teams with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Ohio State (84)	1858
2. Oklahoma (74)	1834
3. UCLA (45)	1800

Star Prefers Preaching to Football Job

WHEATON, Ill. — Dave Burnham, star quarterback who turned down 45 football scholarships, says preaching the Gospel to children is more satisfying than any sports page writeup.

Burnham, 20, who ran and passed for 900 yards at Wheaton last year, broke his shinbone Saturday in leading Wheaton to a 27-6 victory over Lake Forest. Burnham, rated an honorable mention on last year's little All-America, will be out of action for the rest of the season.

Lying in a hospital with his left leg in a cast, Burnham smiled as he mused over some of the offers he received after a fabulous sports career at Buchtel High in Akron, Ohio.

"My father and I added up 45 scholarship offers, some verbal and some by letter, before we stopped counting," Burnham said. "I received offers from such schools as Ohio State, Columbia, Yale, Southern Methodist, Michigan and Florida."

Burnham, however, turned them all down and decided to pay his own way in order to prepare himself for the ministry. His father, Carl Burnham, is pastor of the Chapel at Brown and Vine in Akron.

Only once did he waver and that was when scouts approached him after he won all-state honors in football and basketball and starred in high school all-star football game.

"One of the schools," said Dave, "offered to put me through medical school and even to set me up in practice after graduation. But I felt called to the ministry and decided on Wheaton."

Ringhofer Named To State Board

ST. PAUL — Al Zieper, Norwood, was re-elected president and two veteran officers announced their retirement Monday night as the Minnesota Baseball Assn. held its 32nd annual meeting here. Those quitting are E. W. Johnson, for 31 years secretary-treasurer, and Joe Cory, first vice president, a board member for 27 years, both of St. Paul.

Named to replace Cory was L. R. Ringhofer, Owatonna, and William Burkhardt, St. Cloud, was elected second vice president. The group delayed until a later meeting selection of a replacement for Johnson.

Chosen for three-year terms as directors were O. Lee Schultz, St. Paul, and Omel Schiller, Courtland.

Joe Culmone won 69 races during the 45-day Atlantic City race-track meeting in 1950.

League Owners To Study Plea Of Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA — The long-drawn-out drama of the Philadelphia Athletics and their future today was in rehearsal for the latest act to come—a meeting of American League owners at Chicago Thursday.

At that meeting, called by League President Will Harridge, the club owners will be asked to approve or reject the sale of the Philadelphia franchise to an eight-man syndicate. But that won't ring down the curtain.

The following day the syndicate members are scheduled to meet with Roy Mack, his brother Earle and their father Connie to exchange nearly four million dollars for all but a one-ninth share of the A's stock.

There is every reason to believe that stock transfer will all but end the play.

However, the A's tragedy-comedy has been extended so many times beyond the expected final curtain that it's anybody's guess whether there will be further postponements, delays or what have you.

Badgers Start Preparations For Iowa Tilt

MADISON, Wis. — Two University of Wisconsin regulars, guard Paul Shwaiko and halfback Billy Lowe, rested Monday as the Badgers started preparations for their football date with Iowa at Iowa City Saturday.

Shwaiko, who sat out most of the Ohio State game with a leg injury and Lowe, who hurt his hip in action, are expected by Coach Ivy Williamson to be ready Saturday.

The regulars took it easy Monday. They watched movies of earlier games and heard a scout report on Iowa.

The reserves went through a two-hour scrimmage.

SHIFTING WEIGHT IN STRIDE
Third Step Crouch—How well you finish at the foul line depends on how soundly, or solidly, you have advanced to the third step in four step footwork. We stress the push-away as a vital fundamental, the key to timing. We emphasize that the start must be a slow, shuffle step. No rush. But Herbie Lange, former ABC champion, conveys third step solidity, in a straight line, as sketch shows, as the No. 1 point. My instructive pamphlet, Three Bowling Essentials, gives more detail about footwork. Get it by sending a self-addressed envelope to this newspaper. What the third step does is, of course, the natural sequence to what No. 1 step did. You must have the push-away of the ball, the first step is to be straight in line. You'll find, too, that if you let your weight drop into an easy crouch, shoulders down, as the push-away and first step is completed, the swinging ball will take you straight on and through a straight third step. Try approaching the foul line without a ball, which makes it quite simple to check the third step to see that it's in line. It is practice that will pay off.

McElroy, Quist On First Eleven

MINNEAPOLIS — A booster injection of new faces was Minnesota's medicine today as Murray Warmath bolstered his bedraggled Gophers in hopes of regaining pre-Wolverine form for Saturday's Homecoming game with Michigan State.

In one noteworthy change, Dale Quist has been shifted from the second string to out Geno Cappelletti from the No. 1 quarterback spot. Line personnel changes will see only Bob Hagemeister and Mike Falls continuing with the first stringers.

Sandy Saddler Looking For More Bouts In Europe

PARIS — World featherweight champion Sandy Saddler, still turning his back on a National Boxing Assn. order to defend his crown, "or else," is looking for some more nontitle bouts in Europe today after disposing of France's Ray Famechon in an over-the-weight match.

The 28-year-old New Yorker said he simply wasn't worried about the NBA ultimatum—not if he could line up some money-making matches in Europe. He added, however, the hoped for schedule might include a title bout, but only if the purse was satisfactory.

Saddler's manager, Charley Johnston, already has talked over the possibilities of such a schedule with British promoter Jack Solomons.

Saddler had little trouble with Famechon, the European feather champ, last night and was well ahead on points when the Frenchman's handlers refused to let him answer the sixth-round bell. Both fighters weighed 128 1/2 pounds—just 2 1/2 pounds over the division limit—for the scheduled 10-round.

Ohio State Fears Letdown Against Wildcats Saturday

CHICAGO — Midwest football

briefs: Ohio State — Coach Woody Hayes, fearing a letdown against Northwestern, warned the Wildcats can't be taken lightly. "Northwestern held Michigan to eight in the last half and lost to Pitt in the last 40 seconds. If you take a team like that lightly, you're crazy," said the Buckeye coach.

Northwestern — Five Wildcat regulars are on the injured list including co-captains John Damore, center, and fullback Bob Lauter.

Michigan — No serious injuries were reported by the Wolverines. Michigan went through a light workout and then listened to scout reports on Indiana, Saturday's foe.

Indiana — Pleased with Saturday's comeback performance against Iowa, Coach Bernie Crimmins hopes to eliminate fumbles, penalties and defensive letdowns. Wisconsin — Guard Paul Shwaiko and halfback Billy Lowe were on the injured list but both are expected to play against Iowa. The Badgers held a light workout and then listened to reports on Iowa.

Iowa — Iowa cut contact work Monday with 10 players on the injured list, seven of them regulars. Most of the injured are expected to be ready for Wisconsin.

Michigan State — The Spartans worked hard on overhauling its pass defense, which was rattled by Purdue's Len Dawson Saturday.

Ferris Hallmark, first string guard, suffered a shoulder separation and will be lost for the season. Minnesota — Dale Quist was moved to the No. 1 quarterback spot replacing Geno Cappelletti as Coach Murray Warmath judged his starting lineup for the Michigan State game.

Illinois — Second string quarterback Bob Gongola was lost for the season with a fractured vertebrae. Gongola was injured in an auto mishap Sunday. Purdue — Fullback Phil Ehrman was moved to the No. 1 spot in place of Bill Murkowski as the Boilermakers prepared for their homecoming game against Illinois.

St. Stan's Bows To Rochester Team

St. Stan's Sunday absorbed a 26-7 defeat Saturday at St. Mary's College in a game against Rochester St. John's.

St. John's, paced by fullback Roger Dahlstrom, scored seven points in the first quarter and made it 14-0 at halftime when Ed Kralj went 50 yards on an end-around play.

Dahlstrom raced 50 yards in the third period before St. Stan's recovered a fumble on the 10-yard line. Steve Marcolini skinned end for the touchdown and plunged the point. A blocked kick on St. Stan's 30-yard line led to St. John's final touchdown.

WBA Puts Legal House in Order

The legal house of the Winona Baseball Association was put in order Monday night at the annual meeting of the board of control at the Elks Club.

Difficulties arising from the wording of the original articles of incorporation were straightened out and an amendment to one article was passed.

After the legal business was completed the action taken at the August meeting of the board of control was approved.

That was the only business conducted Monday night.

Plans for revising the articles of incorporation were made when it was pointed out by Harold Streeter at the August meeting that membership was to be "self-perpetuating."

In other words, the only legal members of the board of control were those originally named by sponsoring organizations when the Winona Baseball Association was formed. Since formation of the WBA, sponsoring organizations had appointed representatives to the board although the articles of incorporation stipulated by the "self-perpetuating" phrase that new members should be elected by the remaining members.

Milton Goldberg, chairman of a committee appointed by the board of directors to make necessary adjustments in the articles of incorporation, presented a paper taken at the meeting Monday night.

Twelve original members were present—Ed Rivers, Arnold Mayer, Phil Baumann, Bob Krick, Evar Davies, Robert Nelson, Dor Gostomski, Stan Wiczorek, P. V. McCue and H. G. Hymes.

They accepted, upon motion, the resignation of control board members who had either been replaced, moved away or died. Then they elected to the board new members to replace the others.

Many of the "new" members had served on the board of control for several years, but Monday night marked the first time they were properly elected to the board.

After the new members had been voted in, three additional members were elected to enable each club to have two representatives.

After the membership was taken care of, Goldberg read a proposed amendment to Article 4 of the articles of incorporation, with the following paragraph designed to eliminate future trouble over membership:

"Each sponsoring organization shall have the right to designate or change at any time the persons who represent them as members of this corporation, and may do so by written notice to the secretary of the board of directors of this corporation." The amendment was passed.

Up-to-date roster of the board of control is as follows:

Members of the Board of Control—Eagles Club—Ed Rivers and Arnold J. Mayer, American Legion—John Dugan and Burr Mann, Exchange Club—Carl Frank and Phil Baumann, Association of Commerce—Bob Krick and Milton Goldberg.

Red Men's Club—Evan Davies and Robert Nelson, Winona Boat Club—Julius Kulas and E. H. Beynon, Winona Athletic Club—Earl Berger and Frank Ramer, VFW—August Cierzan and Arthur Borck.

Junior Chamber—Ed Glubka and Paul Koch, Civic Association—Don Gostomski and Steve Sadowski, Activity Group—Stanley Wiczorek and William Bell, Rotary Club—H. G. Hymes and P. V. McCue.

Coast Guard Auxiliary—Jack N. Walz and Dr. D. T. Burt, Lions Club—L. E. Wiggins and Robert Beards, Knights of Columbus—Arthur Fair and Del Schneider, Elks—Leo Cleary and Rollie Tust.

Shrine Club—Stanley Hardt and Dick Whittaker, Kiwanis Club—S. J. Kryzsko and G. L. Welshorn, Rod and Gun Club—R. J. Verchota and Wally Swanson.

Union Club—Carl Aune and Carl Thode, Arlington Club—Harold Streeter and Howard Williams, West End Commercial Club—Hugo Trester and Bert Sherman, Isaac Walton League has not named members of the board.

The YMCA Quarterback Club will meet tonight at 8:30 p.m. at the YMCA with a 30-minute color film of the Detroit Lions-Cleveland Browns football game of 1933 a feature.

Reviews and previews will be given by Winona's four coaches and a special award will be given to a person well known to members of the Winona sports scene.

Bratton Loses Bout to Varona

NEW YORK (AP)—Is Johnny Bratton through at 27 or was it only a rat?

Bratton, 155½, blamed last night's losing performance against Chico Varona, 150½, on an eight-month layoff following a suspension after his Feb. 24 "stinker" with Johnny Saxton at Philadelphia.

Many of the 1,500 spectators who paid $2.02 at St. Nicholas Arena thought the former NBA champ simply didn't have it any more. In any event, he positively didn't have it last night.

For one brief flurry in the third round, the Bratton of old battered the stocky Cuban around the ring. That was it. Except for a dying gasp rally in the 10th, Bratton never took charge again. He lost by unanimous decision.

Car mello Costa, 20-year-old Brooklyn feather who was unbeaten in 26 starts, lost his first fight, a split decision to Rudy Garcia of Los Angeles last night at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway. All three officials had it 5-5 in rounds, but two found Garcia ahead on points.

Tough Job Facing Bowl Game Chairman

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—The men who must be coming down with the galloping jitters as the nation's gridiron Goliaths continue to fall on their faces week after week are those individuals who see the day coming closer when they will have to invite a team or two to play in the major bowl games on Jan. 1.

The pickings from among the "name" powers promise to be perhaps the thinnest ever.

There is at least a possibility that not one of the four major bowl contests—Rose, Cotton, Sugar and Orange—will be played this New Year's Day. Between two undefeated teams, the bowl chairman who presents even one all-conquering eleven will count himself lucky unless he wishes to dip down among teams of less than major standing. He would rather die first.

The only chance the granddaddy of the bowls, the Rose, has of showing an unbeaten team rests on Ohio State's ability to knock off its three remaining Big Ten rivals, plus Pittsburgh. That is a tough hand to fill. UCLA, the only undefeated member of the Coast Conference with the season only just past the halfway point, is not eligible for the Pasadena classic this year.

Similarly, the Cotton Bowl at Dallas cannot offer an unbeaten host team unless the remarkable Arkansas Razorbacks continue to outscorable five more muscular opponents, including three Southwest Conference members.

Only one other team whose claim to greatness is undisputed, Oklahoma, appears certain now to sail through unbeaten. One might guess that the Sooners would show up again in the Orange Bowl at Miami, except that they are not eligible. That would leave five vacancies to be filled among the Orange, Sugar and Cotton classics.

With Maryland already twice beaten and out-tied, and Colorado, which apparently had bowl aspirations, knocked off by Nebraska, the bowl selectors will have to do some tall looking. What the flock of lesser bowls, led by the Gator at Jacksonville, will wind up with this time is fringe benefits.

Twins Born 3 Days And 3 Miles Apart

DULUTH, Minn. (AP)—An Aitkin mother and her newborn twins were doing nicely today after birth of the babies three days and miles apart.

Mrs. Victor L. Sjodin, 33, bore a 5½-pound baby girl here Monday after having given birth Friday in an Aitkin hospital, to a baby boy. She was moved to Duluth by ambulance after her physician anticipated difficulty with the second birth.

The births came only 5 minutes less than 72 hours apart. The Sjodins have two other sons, Kenneth, 6, and Thomas, 4. Their new brother was kept in the Aitkin hospital while their mother made the trip to Duluth.

LET'S EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D.S.

NEWS FLASH: BRUNETS ARE MUCH MORE LIKELY THAN BLONDS TO HAVE POLIO. TRUE FALSE

Answer to Question No. 1

After 50 years study of heredity and consultation with very competent students, I find that the evidence presented makes this conclusion extremely doubtful. No evidence sufficiently critical, has been published proving that polio and skin color are associated. I fear the announcement may make blond families careless of exposure and brunets unnecessarily frightened.

Answer to Question No. 2

Depends. Psychologists find many normal people talk to themselves when lonely or when trying to decide something. Nearly all do so when angry—telling the other fellow where to get off. War prisoners often keep their sanity by talking to themselves. It's bad if you can't stop when you notice it.

Answer to Question No. 3

No, but Yale Drs. Rubenstein and Newman find hypnotized persons will "live out" events they feel will occur. A medical student was told it was an October afternoon in 1963. He detailed an operation as though actually performing it. These doctors think people either fancy they are living these events or else trying to please the hypnotist. All authorities agree hypnotism is dangerous for any but university trained specialists.

BEDTIME STORIES

By HOWARD GARIS

Bunty the orphan rabbit was so happy at seeing her walking, talking doll, Priscilla, came out of the hollow stone wall that, for a moment, Bunty could not say a word. "What a funny chap!" barked Jackie Bow Wow. "Ha! Ha! Ha!" "That's Doodle Bug!" barked Mr. Butter. "How did you know?" asked Uncle Wiggly. "Because I am a detective," answered the goat. "Besides, I heard Priscilla ask which is the best doodle, I see funny marks on the papers each one is carrying. And I know those funny marks are doodles." "How did you know that?" barked Jackie Bow Wow. "Because, my little puppy dog friend," answered Mr. Butter, "I do a bit of doodling myself when I am at the telephone, waiting for Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy to make up her mind what she wants to order. Yes, I am a good doodler." "Then can you tell us if Uncle Wiggly can't, which of these three doodles is best?" asked Bunty's doll. "He can easily tell that mine is the best doodle," said the big bug speaking in a sandpaper style of voice. "I am the one who first made doodles, so of course I am best at doodling. Am I not—er—"

I don't believe I caught your name—Mr. Goat?" "I am Detective Pat Butter!" was the answer. "I brought Uncle Wiggly and Bunty here to find our little orphan rabbit's lost doll." "Don't forget me!" barked Jackie Bow Wow. "When I was on the bone trail I saw Priscilla and Jennie the chipmunk going inside this stone wall fence and I told Uncle Wiggly, didn't I?" "Yes, Jackie, you did," admitted Mr. Longears. "Let's not talk about that," chattered Jennie. "We are found but, anyhow, we were ready to come out of the wall; weren't we, Priscilla?" "Yes, we were," answered Bunty's doll. "We had to find out who made the best doodle. Look at mine, please, Uncle Wiggly!" Priscilla held up her paper which was covered with mysterious marks. "Oh, sweetiepie, precious, darlings!" exclaimed the orphan rabbit. "How perfectly wonderful y o u m s pictures are!" "Please cut out the baby talk, as Bunty would say if he were here," said Priscilla politely to the orphan rabbit. "Which is the best doodle?" Jennie held up her paper, covered with strange marks and the

Seventh-Grader Wins Georgia Spelling Contest

ATLANTA (AP)—Anne Warren, a seventh-grader at Monticello, Ga., was declared winner of the state spelling contest at the recent Southeastern Fair here.

"But when the papers were returned," said State School Supt. M. J. Collins yesterday, "Anne pointed out two words she had missed and which the judges had not detected."

"She said she knew it would knock her out of first place but she wanted to be honest."

Her admission gave the championship to Stephen Johnson, high school student at West Point. The State Board of Education directed Dr. Collins to write Anne a letter of commendation.

West Will Use A-Bomb If Attacked, Claim

LONDON (AP)—Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme Allied commander in Europe, said Monday the Western Powers would use atomic weapons if they are attacked in Europe.

"We should be forced to use such weapons to correct the imbalance in relation to the hordes which might be arrayed against us," Gruenther said at a luncheon of the Air League of the British Empire at the Mansion House.

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP)—Kyodo news service claimed today a 9-year-old girl died here of what it called the aftereffects of the wartime atom-bombing of this city more than nine years ago.

The news agency said she was the 13th person to die in Hiroshima this year of "atomic disease."
